

REPUBLICANS WORSE THAN GRASSHOPPERS IN SEARCH OF ISSUE

Mr. Glynn Likens Them to the "Huma," the Bird That Never Lights on Land or Sea.

HE NOTIFIES MR. MARSHALL

Declares Wilson Administration in Point of Service is Without Rival in 50 Years.

REPLIES TO THE CRITICS

Indianapolis the Scene of Third Notification Ceremony.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall was notified tonight of his re-nomination for Vice President on the Democratic ticket and formally accepted the honor. The ceremonies were the third of the kind to be held in Indianapolis within the last few weeks. The other two notifications were for J. Frank Hanly, the Prohibition presidential candidate, and Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican Vice Presidential nominee.

Glynn Makes Notification Speech.

Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, delivered the speech of notification, after having been introduced by J. A. M. Adair, candidate for governor of Indiana, chairman of the ceremonies. All the speakers praised the present Democratic administration, recalled to the Republican attacks which had been made on it, and expressed confidence of a Democratic victory.

A big parade preceded the ceremonies. Mr. Glynn summed up the results of the administration of Woodrow Wilson, replied to critics of the administration and set forth the reasons why he believed Mr. Wilson and Mr. Marshall should be re-elected.

Unrivalled in Fifty Years.

Mr. Glynn described the Wilson administration as one "that in efficiency of service and in responsiveness to popular will, has had no rival in this country in the last 50 years."

Summing up the results of the Wilson administration, Mr. Glynn said: "No longer will the hearts of little children be coined into gold or their blood stain the commerce of our land; no longer will the poetry of youth be robbed of its glamour or its song of joy transformed into a lamentation of despair."

"No longer will the sowers of our seed and the reapers of our harvests be denied proper place in the sun of our financial world."

"No longer will widows and orphans, robbed of their pittance of savings, beat their clenched fists in vain upon the doors of banks closed by manufactured panics."

"No longer will any man or set of men be able to corner the money market, or take the country's business by the throat and force it to deliver to their financial pressure."

Republicans on the "Flight."

Concerning some of the issues of the campaign, Mr. Glynn said: "In their search for an issue grasshoppers never hopped as our opponents have hopped, chameleons never changed their hues as our opponents have changed their cries in this campaign."

"They are like the 'huma,' the bird of perpetual motion that never lights on land or sea, but is always on the wing. First they create an issue out of 'Americanism.' But as soon as they see the people know that Woodrow Wilson is doing today in our foreign affairs exactly what Washington, Adams and Jefferson and Lincoln and Grant did under similar circumstances, they hop to another issue."

"Then Mexico becomes their issue. But as soon as they see the country knows the Mexican situation is a heritage from a Republican administration they hop again."

"Then they fall to criticizing the Pershing expedition against Villa and the mobilization of the troops on the border. But as soon as they see the people remember President Taft's mobilization order in 1912 and that armed forces from the United States invaded Spanish and Mexican territory on ten different occasions for offenses identical with that which Villa committed against the country, why our Republican friends hop again."

"Then they did up the 'old man of the sea,' the tariff."

"Then they attack the recent 5-hour law for railroads. And since Monday they have been trying to make an issue out of the state election up in Maine as a repudiation of the Wilson policies and a forecast of National Republican victory. But this contention will not hold water. The average Republican majority in Maine in the last five national elections was 31,164, and yet on Monday last the Republicans carried it by only 13,000."

"This same kind of a Republican victory would have won New York to Wilson by 250,000. The falling off of the Republican vote in Maine is 39 per cent from the vote of four years ago. If this percentage prevails throughout the country on next election day, Woodrow Wilson will carry every doubtful state in the nation."

MARSHALL ACCEPTS HIS RE-NOMINATION

Declares President Wilson Has Walked Where There Was No Path and Has Left a Trail.

HIMSELF AN "ON-LOOKER"

Says America is the One Peaceful Spot on the Globe Because the President Has Used Words Instead of Shot and Shell.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—Thomas R. Marshall, formally accepted the Democratic nomination for the vice presidency here tonight, not for additional honor, he said, "but in the hope that I may assist in the re-election of Woodrow Wilson who has not walked where the path has led, but who has walked where there was no path and who has left a trail."

In a speech of acceptance phrased in characteristic vein, the Vice President sketched briefly the legislative achievements of the administration, in which he said he had been "an on-looker," and eulogized the President as "the man who brooded over the Republic in storm-tossed times and by mere words spoke peace on the troubled seas of international politics." A changed administration, he declared, would not dare repeal a single one of the important measures put on the statute books since March 4, 1913. Wanting an issue, he continued, the Republicans had turned to foreign affairs, coining such phrases as "Firm Americanism" which they could not de-stitute of the refusal on Theodore Roosevelt to accept the Progressive presidential renomination, declaring the former president was a leader who promised he would lead at Armageddon, but who, when he was elected, turned his back on the Holy Land. He predicted that the issues put forward by the Republicans would not be accepted as such by the people in the present abnormal year, adding "You cannot interest a bridegroom in the tariff nor a widow in the coffin trust."

The all-important question of what the Republicans would have done regarding the Louisiana, Mexico and Belgium, said the Vice President, had not been answered by the party's presidential candidate, Mr. Hughes. He added that "Firm Americanism" should be categorically defined by those who had coined it, and declared the people would not be willing to discharge one doctor because he was criticized by another who offered no remedy.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Marshall, "the average American wants to know who is in the partnership with Knickerbocker Hughes in this 'Firm Americanism.' Does the firm consist of Hughes and Roosevelt, of Hughes and Hohenloer, or of Hughes, surviving partner of the firm of Hughes and Huerta?"

TENNESSEE GUARDSMEN ARE ORDERED TO MEXICAN BORDER

They Probably Will Be Stationed at Fort Clark, Near Eagle Pass.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The Tennessee National Guard, ordered to the Mexican border today by the War Department, Tennessee has mobilized two regiments of infantry, a troop of cavalry and an ambulance company, and a field hospital.

Ordering out of the Tennessee troops is in line with the department's policy of giving all the Guardsmen called into the Federal service a tour of duty on the border under war conditions before they are mustered out. The Tennessee regiments will probably be placed at Fort Clark, north of Eagle Pass and several miles back from the border.

TO INVESTIGATE RATES.

Proposed Increases on Tobacco Shipments Suspended Temporarily.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Numerous proposed increases in freight rates on smoking tobacco and other tobacco products from Virginia and North Carolina to Southern destinations were suspended by the Interstate Commerce Commission today from tomorrow until January 13, next, pending investigation.

LAKE PASSENGER AND FREIGHT SHIP IS A TOTAL LOSS

Pacific Coast Company's Liner Congress Burned Last Night Off Coos Bay Bar.

423 PERSONS ABOARD SAVED

Burning Liner Completely Shrouded in Smoke When Rescue Vessels Reached Scene.

Marshall, Ore., Sept. 14.—Fire tonight completely destroyed the Pacific Coast Company's liner Congress, two miles off Coos Bay bar. Several vessels, which rushed to her assistance in response to distress calls, helped remove her 253 passengers and crew of 170.

When the dredge Michie and the gas schooner Tillamook reached the Congress they found the liner almost completely shrouded in smoke and the passengers fighting frantically to enter the life boats. Captain Cousins and his crew managed to maintain control and the work of transferring the people aboard the rescue vessel was carried out in an orderly manner.

Before the last boat load, in which was Captain Cousins, left the Congress the smoke and heat were almost unbearable. Flames were shooting out of the ventilators and up the passage ways.

Soon afterwards the flames enveloped her from stem to stern. With the wind and tide the steamer then began drifting in toward the spit of Coos Bay.

The fire was discovered at about 3 p. m. near the second hold in the stateroom cabin. No word was received from the Congress, however, regarding the fire until nearly 3 p. m. At that time the steamer was running for Coos Bay. She came to a stop off the bay bar at 4:30 and the dredge Michie soon was at the scene. Boats were lowered at once. The gasoline schooner Tillamook arrived just before the last of the passengers were removed from the forward deck of the Congress, where watchers on shore could see flames shooting as night fell, obscuring the burning vessel from sight.

FINEST SHIP RUNNING BETWEEN SAN FRANCISCO AND SEATTLE

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—The Congress, which is the largest vessel in the fleet of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, left here yesterday for Seattle with 218 first cabin passengers and 37 in the steerage. One hundred and twelve passengers were from Southern California ports. Captain N. E. Cousins is in command of the Congress and the steamer carries a crew of about 170.

The Congress, which was built in 1913 at Camden, N. J., at a cost of $1,250,000, is a steel steamer of 7,955 tons, 425 feet long and 55 feet broad. She is the finest vessel on the run from San Francisco to Seattle.

Grand Island, Neb., Sept. 14.—Francis G. Newlands, United States Senator, from Nevada, who was here today, said the report sent from Chicago last night that hearings on government ownership of railroads would be held in Chicago was incorrect. The hearing, he said, will be opened in Washington, November 20.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT ON GEORGE W. TIENCKEN

Five Warrants Sworn Out by the President of A. & M. College.

Wilmington Young Man Hazed Sunday Night, Tied and Beaten in Dormitory by Young Men of Raleigh. Two Arrests Are Made.

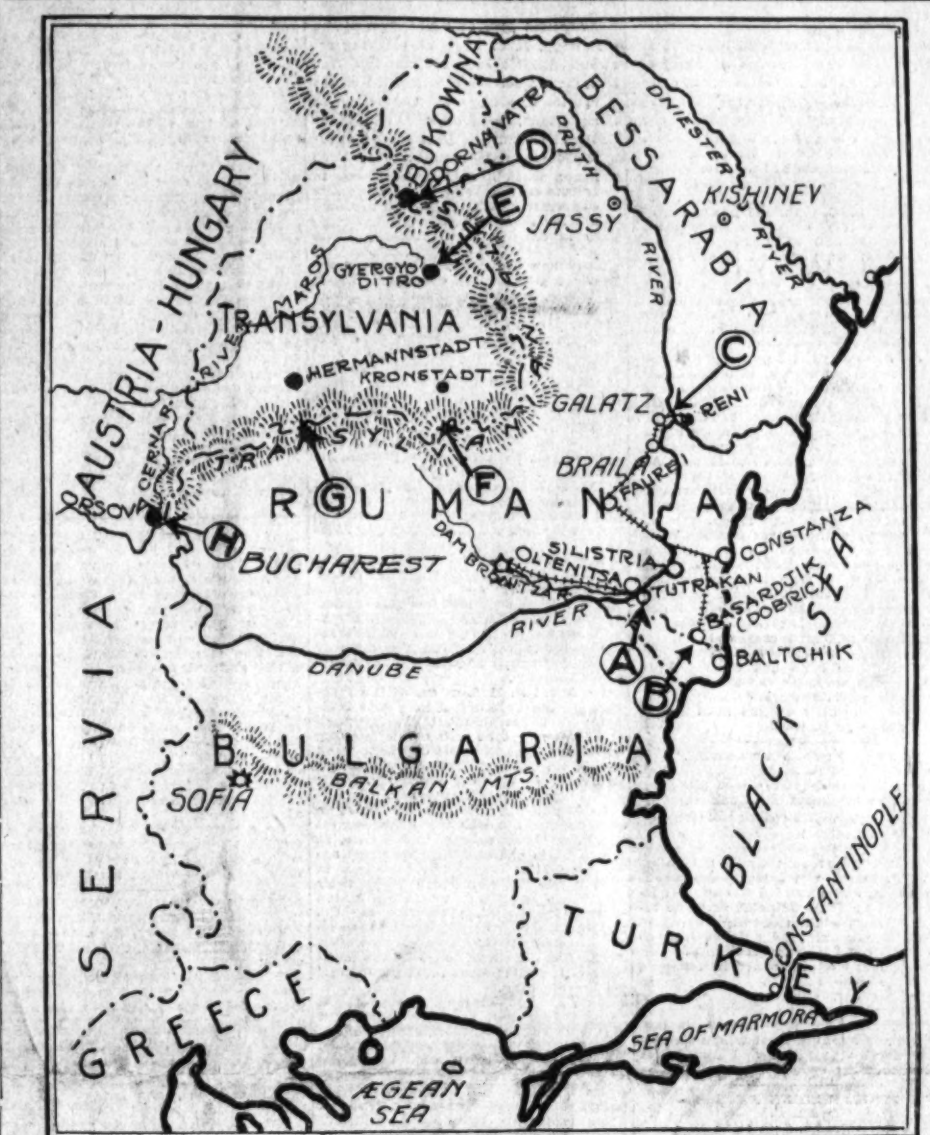

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 14.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of five young men of this city, charged with having "hazed" G. W. Tiencken, of Wilmington, N. C., a freshman at the North Carolina A. & M. College here, Sunday night. It became known today, two of the warrants, which are said to charge trespass, assault and battery, already have been served, the police said tonight.

Prof. W. C. Riddick, president of the college, who swore out the warrants, would not divulge the names of those whose arrest he had requested and the police would not discuss the case other than to confirm reports that the warrants had been placed in their hands and that two of them had been served. Those named in the warrants, it was said, are not students at the college. It was understood they visited a student acquaintance in one of the dormitories Sunday night and that the rough handling of Tiencken took place during the visit.

ROMANIAN FIELD OF BATTLE; SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE.

The arrow A indicates the advance toward Bucharest and Silistria of the Germans and Bulgars, who have taken Tutrakhan. The arrow B shows the fighting about Basardjik and Balchik between the Teutons and the Russians, who came south on the railroad indicated by Arrow C. This is the fighting in the Dobruja. The arrow D indicates the mountainous region where Rumanians and Russians are co-operating to push back the Austrians about Dorna Vatra. The arrows E, F and G show the Rumanian invasion of Transylvania, which already has progressed to the river Maros, where the Austrians are fighting. The arrow H indicates the advance of the Rumanian troops, who have crossed the river Cerna and taken Orsova and now threaten the southern extremity of the Austrian line.

POLICE PLAN THE NEW RECORD MADE TO FORM CAMPAIGN

ONE MOST FAVORED IN NAVAL GUNNERY PLANS ON MONDAY

This Proposition for Solving Border Problem Appeals Strongly to American Members. Superdreadnaught Pennsylvania's Guns Lead the World in Long Distance Firing. President Wilson Will Make No Political Speeches on Trips Away From Long Branch.

NO DEFINITE AGREEMENT TARGET WAS OUT OF SIGHT WILL MAKE A CLEAN FIGHT

Major General Bliss Will Appear Before American-Mexican Commission Today for Discussion of Border Problems. Five Hits Scored at Range of 20,000 Yards in Simultaneous Discharge From Twelve Fourteen-Inch Rifles. Will Avoid Personalities as Much as Possible—Accepts Challenge of Hughes on Settlement of the Railroad Strike.

New London, Conn., Sept. 14.—Major General Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the United States army, is to appear before the American-Mexican commission tomorrow when discussion of border problems is renewed. He will be the first and possibly the only witness to be interrogated by the commission in joint session as it is said to be the desire of the American commissioners to expedite deliberations by keeping the door closed against an endless succession of persons who wish to be heard.

No definite plan for border patrol has taken shape in the minds of the commissioners. The Americans conferred with General Bliss again today. It was indicated that the proposal which has appealed most strongly to them was that border constabulary be created to operate as a police force along both sides of the line. It was suggested that the force be composed of former soldiers of both countries, under joint control, and that the expense be shared by both governments.

Details of the plan have not been worked out. In its favor, it was argued, that the Mexican people would not feel toward the constabulary the same hostility that they displayed toward the American troops which have crossed the line. It also was suggested that the police force would be far more effective in clearing the mountains of Northern Mexico of bandits than either Mexican or American troops.

This joint commission probably will adjourn tomorrow over the week-end to permit the Mexican members to celebrate the Mexican independence day, September 16.

According to a statement given out tonight, today's session was devoted to an informal interchange of views on (Continued on Page Two.)

COMBLES VILLAGE IS APPARENTLY ON VERGE OF CAPTURE

French Forces, Only a Mile to the East, Advance Further and Occupy LePrie Farm.

GERMAN ATTACKS IN VAIN

Teutonic Allies Continue Advance in Dobruja—Heavy Fighting on Macedonian Front.

Beset by the British on the west and the French on the east, the village of Combles, apparently is on the verge of capture by the Entente forces.

With the British firmly established in the Leuze wood, less than a mile from the western outskirts of the village, the French a mile to the east of it, have driven their wedge in farther and captured Le Priez farm, through which runs the road to Rancourt. The farm, which had been held by the Germans as a point of support against French encroachments upon Combles, was taken by assault.

German Attacks Unsuccessful.

Along the Peronne-Bethune road, to the north and south of Bouchavesnes, the Germans, according to Paris, have vainly attacked the newly won French positions in the hope of regaining their transport line to the north, but all their efforts have been without success and the French have maintained all their gains.

Except for reciprocal bombardments and a slight advance by the French by means of bombing attacks near Bellou-en-Santerre, south of the Somme, the situation elsewhere on the entire front in France and Belgium remains unchanged.

Rumanians Repulsed.

The Teutonic allies are continuing the advance on the Dobruja sector of Rumania, according to Berlin and Sofia. Across the mountains in Transylvania the Rumanians have attacked west and east of Hermannstadt, but were repulsed, says the Vienna war office.

In the Carpathians the Russians attacked vigorously the forces of the Central Powers at Smotecz, Ludova and Kapul, storming positions after heavy preparatory bombardment. Their efforts to drive forward, however, were stopped with sanguinary losses, according to Vienna.

Gains by Serbs Reported.

On the Macedonian front, considerable heavy fighting has taken place in the last few days, according to contradictory reports by the different war chancelleries. The Serbs in the Lake Ostrovo region are declared by Paris to have made appreciable progress against the Bulgarians while both Berlin and Sofia report bombardments in this vicinity but mention gains for neither side. On the front where the Italians are facing the Bulgarians, Sofia asserts that the Italians have been pushed slightly in the Dolina region. The British have taken a Teutonic position north of the town of Mueukovo. Several Germans were taken prisoner and a number of machine guns captured.

HEARINGS ON ARMOR PLATE PLANT ENDED

About 125 Cities and Rural Districts Make Offers.

Selection of Site for the Projected $11,000,000 Government Factory Will Probably Not Be Made for Over Two Months.

Washington, September 14.—Hearings before Secretary Daniels and the General Board of the navy on the question of a suitable location for the projected $11,000,000 government armor factory closed today with approximately 125 cities and rural districts asking for the plant. A selection probably will not be made for more than two months.

All possibility of purchasing a ready-built plant was disposed of during the hearing. Of the factories making armor or engaged in similar activities, only two were mentioned as possible purchases, and the General Board considers neither satisfactory. They are the properties of the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company and of an unnamed corporation which is constructing a factory at Ashland, Ky.

The law provides that the factory, which will have an annual capacity of not less than 20,000 tons of armor, shall be located with special reference to safety in time of war. Naval experts are widely divided as to the best locality, some declaring Philadelphia the logical place, others preferring Birmingham, because of its proximity to the Alabama mineral producing district, and many contending that New York, western Pennsylvania, Ohio, or the middle Western states having water routes for transportation, should be chosen.

The President will not begin his "porch campaign" at Shadow Lawn until next week. He has definitely decided to make no speeches away from here except before non-partisan organizations. He will accept the challenge of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, on the issue created by the settlement of the recently threatened railroad strike.

The President will dwell particularly on the prosperity of the country and on his plans for the "industrial preparedness" of the country to meet the problem which he expects will develop after the close of the European war. In this connection it became known today that as soon as Congress convenes in December he will make further efforts to have passed a bill allowing American exporters to utilize common selling agencies abroad. A threatened filibuster prevented the passage of a similar measure by Congress during the closing days of the last session. He made tentative plans tonight for leaving here next Monday night for St. Louis, to address an association of underwriters. It is possible, however, that the trip (Continued on Page Two.)

TURKEY WILL PERMIT RELIEF FOR SYRIANS

Consents to Shipment of Supplies
From United States.

This Consent, However, Does Not Apply to Armenia, and Negotiations for Giving Aid There Are Being Continued.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The Turkish government, in a communication received today at the State Department, consents to shipment of relief supplies from the United States to famine sufferers in Syria. The action reverses the previous attitude of Turkish officials, who had refused two urgent pleas by the department for the privilege to make such shipments.

Distribution of the supplies, which already had been offered in large quantities by Syrian and Armenian relief societies, would be made under the Turkish plan, through the port of Beirut. State Department officials believe that, inasmuch as the French government has been anxious to get such supplies through and may itself contribute, assent of the Entente Allies for passage of the supplies through the blockade of Turkey may be confidently expected.

The consent of the Ottoman government with respect to Syria does not apply to Armenia, but negotiations are being continued for similar concessions there.

In her previous communications regarding Syria, Turkey had insisted that there was no urgent need for relief supplies there. However, convinced the State Department that many of the inhabitants had been reduced to starvation, and Turkey was informed in July that continued failure to heed the American request for permission to make shipments would put a severe strain on relations between the two countries.

DUNNE AND LOWDEN WON BY BIG MAJORITIES IN ILLINOIS

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, Democrat, Defeated for Re-Nomination.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Latest returns from yesterday's Illinois primary election indicated tonight that Governor E. P. Dunne's plurality for the Democratic nomination for governor would be $5,000, and that of Frank O. Lowden, on the Republican ticket, 100,000.

Defeat of Lieutenant Governor Barrett O'Hara, Democrat, for re-nomination by Henry W. Huttman, of Chicago, was assured by late down state returns. It is probable that less than 1,000 votes will determine the Republican attorney general's nomination between Edward J. Brundage, of Chicago, and Richard J. Barr, of Joliet.

For congressmen-at-large the nomination of Medill McCormick by the Republicans was certain and for his running mate, former Senator William E. Mason, was strengthening his lead over E. M. Chipperfield, incumbent. Representative E. Elmer Williams has been re-nominated by the Democrats and returns indicated that Joseph O. Kostner, of Chicago, would win over Everett Jennings by about 5,000 for the other place.

The total vote in the state cast at the primary was only $7 per cent of the vote for governor in 1912, according to estimates tonight. The total yesterday was $63,183, of which 423,361 were Republican and 239,852 Democratic.

INTEREST TURNS TO CONTENTS FOR THREE GEORGIA JUDGESHIPS

Races For Congress and State House Office Have Been Decided

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—With all races for Congress and state house officers tonight decided interest in the returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary centered in the contest for three judgeships in the court of appeals.

With only two counties missing, five of the 14 aspirants for the three places were so closely bunched it seemed probable that the nomination would be in the contention to be held in Macon September 25. Apparently none of the candidates can hope for a convention vote of the necessary 192 on the primary return. The five leading candidates are: C. E. H. Bloodworth, 92 counties and 156 votes; W. F. Jenkins, 82 counties, 152 votes; Alex. Stephens, 84 counties, 134 votes; Walter George, 63 counties, 131 votes, and J. B. Hutcheson, 45 counties and 123 votes.

With six counties unreported in the race for commissioner of agriculture J. J. Brown has 195 votes and has defeated J. D. Price, the incumbent.

MARY, BIG ELEPHANT WHO KILLED HER KEEPER, HANGED

Heavy Chains and Derrick Car of C. C. & O. Railroad Used.

Erwin, Tenn., September 14.—"Mary," the big elephant which Tuesday killed her trainer at Kingsport, Tenn., after a circus performance, was hanged here today in the presence of over 1,500 people. A derrick car of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railroad was used in the execution. The animal was forced to the tracks by the aid of other elephants, and there heavy chains tied around her neck and suspended in the air. According to her owners, she was valued at $25,000.

The hanging, it is said, is the culmination of many crimes, and as no quick poisons were at hand, the showmen decided on the hanging.

BRITISH LINER SUNK

Steamer Counsellor Was Vessel of 4,058 Tons—Crew Saved.

London, Sept. 14.—The Harrison liner Counsellor has been sunk. Her crew was saved.

The British steamer Counsellor, of 4,958 tons gross, was built in 1908 at Belfast. The Counsellor was last reported sailing from Colon August 27, bound from Vancouver for Liverpool.

OFFER THEIR AID IN SETTLING CAR STRIKE

Business and Professional Men Confer With City Officials.

Allied Trade Unionists, Numbering 70,000, Threaten to Strike Saturday Unless Settlement Is Effected By Then.

New York, Sept. 14.—Representative business and professional men late today offered to co-operate with city officials in an endeavor to settle the transit strike which, for the past seven days, has hampered transportation in Manhattan, the Bronx and portions of Westchester county. While James P. Holland, president of the State Federation of Labor, was telling $400 striking car men and their sympathizers, at a meeting in Union Square after their parade, that 70,000 allied trade unionists would strike Saturday unless a settlement was effected in the meantime, Mayor Mitchell and the public service commission were in conference with committees from the chamber of commerce, the merchants' association and kindred organizations in an effort to settle the strike.

An investigation begun by the public service commission into the causes which led to the present crisis probably will be completed tomorrow. Until then neither Mayor Mitchell, nor members of the commission, it was said tonight, would announce definitely the plans they have in mind for settling the strike.

Although a score of persons were injured, several of them seriously, in surface car accidents today, the police reported there was comparatively little violence. Subway and elevated service continued about normal.

Frederick W. Whitridge, president of the Third Avenue Railroad Company, tonight invited the strikers to return to work, promising better working conditions and an increase in wages amounting to $16,000 a year. Mr. Whitridge said he had decided upon this course "because the Third Avenue railroad officials were convinced that many of the strikers had been bullied into going on strike."

NEGRO STILL AT LARGE.

Killed Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant and Wounded Five Others.

New Orleans, Sept. 14.—Although squads of police have searched nearly 24 hours for Seymour Clay, the negro who last night shot and killed Fortune Jaubert, a wholesale dry goods merchant, and wounded five other persons, the fugitive was still at large tonight. Last night's shooting occurred after Clay had slashed a street car conductor several times with a knife when the car refused to stop. Clay jumped from the car, eluded the pursuing crowd and procured a rifle. Police reserves had arrived by that time and during the running fight which followed Jaubert was killed and four other persons in the crowd were wounded.

75 GUARDSMEN DESERT.

New Jersey Troops Said to Be Disaffected With Their Food.

Jersey City, N. J., September 14.—Disaffected with their food, it is said 75 non-commissioned officers and men of the Fourth regiment, National Guard of New Jersey, have deserted their command at Sea Girt. The police at Jersey City and neighboring cities were asked tonight to arrest them. The regiment recently returned from the Mexican border.

Two privates and a corporal, arrested here tonight, told the police they had no intention of deserting, but they had traveled to their homes in Jersey City to get a "regular" meal.

"SECRET MAIL" INVESTIGATION.

Indictments Against Two Men for Smuggling Jewelry Into Country.

New York, Sept. 14.—Investigation of an alleged plot to operate a secret mail system between this country and Germany was followed today by indictments here against Hans Edwards Thompson and Frederick Uffelman on a charge of smuggling jewelry worth $25,000, in the United States on July 11. The men were arrested August 20. Uffelman, it was said, had been employed on a steamship plying between here and Scandinavian ports.

VILLISTS TAKE VILLAGE?

Report of Engagement With Defunct Troops Reaches Border.

Presidio, Texas, Sept. 14.—A report reached the border tonight that Villa followers have engaged government troops near Mesquite, a town of some importance on the line of the Mexican Central railway, about 50 miles south-east of Chihuahua City, with the result that they were able to occupy Julimes, a village of the neighborhood. Villa, himself, according to the rumor, joined his forces in Julimes.

POLICE PLAN THE ONE MOST FAVORED

The enforcement of law in Mexico and guarantees to certain personal property rights are the main reasons, it is explained that under the Diaz regime the judicial procedure was so cumbersome and expensive, and the judiciary so corrupt that it was impossible for a poor man to obtain justice. As soon as the plan for the revision of the constitution has been carried out, through a constitutional convention, a thorough-going reform of the national codes will be undertaken in order to make these codes conform to the new standards of justice and equity to be incorporated in the constitution. The Mexican commissioners emphasized the fact that the Carranza government has no intention of weakening the guarantees to civil rights, although the present abnormal condition of the country has made it necessary to suspend the constitutional guarantees in various sections of the republic.

CHARLOTTE ENGINEERS COMPANY TO MOVE SOON

Definite Mobilization Orders Have Been Issued.

Rewards Amounting to $1,500 Offered For Arrest of Bertie Wife-Slayer. Dr. Pittinger Honored—Raleigh News.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 14.—Having received definite orders from the War Department for the mobilization of the Charlotte company of engineers at Camp Glenn, with other units of the National Guard, the plan of the Adjutant General's department is to keep the men assembled at their armory in Charlotte on pay for a few days while the equipment is being gotten to Camp Glenn for them and then get the company in camp with the least possible delay.

Governor Craig offered today a reward of $100 for the capture of Leroy T. White, the young man of Bertie county, who is alleged to have killed his wife at this home near Windsor, Monday, and has evidently fled the State. There are additional rewards by the county authorities and by friends of the murdered woman, bringing the total to $1,500. It is said the killing was most brutal and White left threats, it is said, that he intended to kill two of his brothers-in-law, whom he charged with interfering with his business.

Sheriff J. W. Cooper, of Bertie county, has assured the Governor that he and his deputies and posse of citizens have searched diligently for the fugitive.

There was a joint session this afternoon of the members of the legislative committees of the North Carolina Press Association and the Association of North Carolina Newspapers for the special purpose of discussing possible relief from the steadily advancing prices of print paper and its great scarcity.

President A. H. Boyden, of the trustees of the Soldiers' Home, has indicated to Superintendent Linberry, of the Home, that he will call a meeting of the trustees for some day next week to act on his resignation and elect a successor to Captain Linberry.

Thomas' Trial Today.

In Wake Superior court today a strenuous effort was made by counsel for E. S. Thomas to have his case, in which he is charged with the shooting of a man on the streets of Tennessee, at that lady's Pullman berth while their train was standing under the union station shed here, postponed for the term on the plea that there has been no time to prepare the defense. However, Judge Bond declined to grant the postponement and Thomas must go on trial Friday morning.

State Demonstration Agent C. R. Hudson says that the federal States Department of Agriculture has supplied 27,000 pounds of grass seed for the Western Carolina food sufferers and that the seed are being distributed just as rapidly as possible. However, possible in the opinion of Mr. Hudson. Other shipments by the Federal government are promised in as rapid succession as possible.

Church members of all denominations in Raleigh joined in doing honor to Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, D. D., who is just now retiring from the active rectorship of the Church of the Good Shepherd to become rector emeritus without active duties after 25 years of service during which he has provided the parish with a splendid granite and tile church building, the church property being valued at more than $75,000.

Dr. Joseph Blunt, Bishop of the diocese of North Carolina, presided over brief ceremonies during which Dr. A. W. Knox for the congregation; Dr. Hunter for the Episcopal church; and Dr. O'Kelly, of the Baptist church, for the Raleigh ministry, gave expressions of appreciation for the esteem in which Dr. and Mrs. Pittinger are held. There was an informal social gathering in the parish rooms thereafter.

RAT FLEAS THE CAUSE?

Theory Advanced as to Spread of Infantile Paralysis.

New York, Sept. 14.—That rat fleas are responsible for the spread of infantile paralysis is the theory advanced here by medical research authorities who have been experimenting to determine the carrier and transmitter of the disease, according to an announcement tonight by Dr. Haven Emerson, city health commissioner.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Elvinton's Pharmacy a bottle of druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

COMBLES VILLAGE IS APPARENTLY ON VERGE OF CAPTURE

(Continued From Page One.) evacuated by the Bulgarians, Berlin says they are all in the hands of the Bulgarians and that the Greek troops which were at Kavala have been sent to Germany where they will remain until the end of the war "in the status of neutrals."

In the Austro-Italian theatre, the usual bombardments and isolated infantry attacks continue. Late Athens dispatches declare that M. Dimitracopoulos has declined to form a cabinet to succeed that of M. Zaimis.

AUSTRIAN ESTABLISHMENTS ATTACKED BY ITALIAN AIRMEN

Rome, via London, Sept. 14.—A squadron of Italian aeroplanes made a raid yesterday on the Austrian arsenal and aeroplane hangars near Trieste, says an official statement, issued by the war office today. Five tons of high explosives were dropped and large fires were observed to result, the statement adds: "The portion of the war office statement concerning aerial activity reads as follows:

"Enemy aircraft dropped bombs on Ancona, but they did not harm. Hydro-aeroplanes of the Italian army were driven off by our batteries and aeroplanes. Last night an enemy squadron bombarded San Giorgio Di Nogaro, Villa Venturina and other places in the Venetian district. One man was killed and some fires were caused."

"Yesterday afternoon in unfavorable atmospheric conditions, a squadron of 22 of our Caproni biplane planes, escorted by Newmarket fighters, made a raid on the Austrian aeroplanes of the Muro-ni station at Lake Angera. In the Gulf of Riga, where 17 aeroplanes of various sizes and models were discernible, the Russian dropped 78 bombs, with resultant fire and smoke, which soon concealed the seaplane sheds."

Eight German machines attacked the Russian machines but were soon put to flight with machine guns. During the bombing and air fight not less than eight German machines were destroyed or put out of action. The Russian aeroplanes returned safely, notwithstanding they were shelled by anti-aircraft guns."

On a previous occasion the correspondent says, one Murumets machine, with a crew of five, routed seven German aeroplanes which attacked it.

AEROPLANE RAID ON TRIESTE IS WITHOUT MUCH DAMAGE

Vienna, via London, Sept. 14.—A naval officer's statement issued today reads: "Wednesday afternoon an enemy squadron of 18 capronis under the protection of three anti-aircraft aeroplanes, attacked Trieste. Six enemy planes and two motor boats assisted them in the attack. Numerous bombs were dropped, but these caused only slight damage and none of military importance. One man was slightly injured."

"Our aeroplanes and anti-aircraft batteries obtained hits on the enemy torpedo boats. At the same time an enemy air squadron appeared over Parenzo, dropping 20 bombs in a field. No damage was done."

RUMANIANS AND RUSSIANS CHARGED WITH ATROCITIES

Berlin, Sept. 14. (by Wireless).—The Bulgarian war office issued the following statement under date of September 13th:

"The commander of the third army further reports: 'Our officers who yesterday returned from Silistria, Tutul and vicinity and who witnessed events there, report that the Rumanian troops during their ignominious retreat committed horrible excesses against peaceful, inoffensive Bulgarians. While another crowd demonstrated before the town hall shouting 'Down with the junkies! Down with the people's torturers!'

"Thirty-seven women were arrested. The policemen were badly injured by stones thrown from windows."

SAYS SHOT WAS ACCIDENTAL

Mexican's Pistol Was Discharged While Being Cleaned.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 14.—Major Salvador Cardenas, commander of the Matamoros garrison, stated tonight that the shooting of a child at the border here early today was due to the accidental discharge of a pistol which a Mexican customs official was cleaning. The bullet entered a residence here and narrowly missed striking a child.

Reports that an American army outpost was fired on near Brownsville Monday are being investigated by Major Cardenas.

TRANSPORT 85 AMERICANS.

Cruiser Des Moines Ordered to Take Them Out of Palestine.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Instructions to arrange for transportation of 85 American women and children out of Palestine on the cruiser Des Moines were cabled by the State Department today to the American embassy at Constantinople. They will embark at Sidra, where the cruiser is to deliver a supply of medicines and will be taken by the cruiser to the nearest Italian port and transferred to ocean liners for the United States.

15-DAY RATES APPROVED.

On Notes at Cleveland, Atlanta and Washington, Sept. 14.—A three and one-half per cent rate of interest for 15 day notes at the Cleveland and Atlanta Federal Reserve banks, and 4 per cent at the Minneapolis Federal Reserve Bank were approved today by the Federal Reserve Board under recent legislation. A 4 per cent charge on 15 day maturities already had been approved for Richmond.

SALESMAN TELLS HOW HE GAINED TEN LBS. ALREADY

"There Is Nothing Too Good For Me to Say About Tanlac," Declares H. E. Wood, After Suffering From Stomach Ills
and Indigestion.

Looking the picture of health, H. E. Wood gladly told the Tanlac Man how "Tanlac cured me of indigestion and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for over four years."

"I got in such state," Mr. Wood went on, "that meats and vegetables and other solid foods caused pain and distress and I was much run-down and felt tired out all the time. Too, I was nervous and couldn't sleep properly. I lost steadily in weight and strength despite the fact that I was trying everything I heard of. Nothing seemed to help me until getting this Tanlac, which had helped my friends."

"But a few doses of Tanlac had me feeling much better and now, after taking three bottles of it, I suffer no more from indigestion or other troubles. I am hungry for every meal and can eat anything I want without having distress afterwards. I sleep just fine and awake in the morning feeling fit and ready for a hearty breakfast and my day's work. So far, my weight has increased ten pounds on Tanlac, and I have gained back all of my old time strength and energy. There is nothing too good for me to say about Tanlac," concluded Mr. Wood, who is a salesman for a leading business firm of Raleigh, in which city he resides at 325 Edenton avenue.

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington at the Bellamy Drug Store, exclusively; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgum, C. I. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Magnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.

MANUS WILL COACH BALL TEAM AT TRINITY COLLEGE

Montgomery, Ala., September 14.—Frank Manush, of Tusculum, Ala., former Montgomery Southern Association ball player, but now manager of the Durham team of the North Carolina League, has been selected to coach the baseball team of Trinity College, for the 1917 season, according to an announcement made tonight.

Manush was at one time a member of the Cleveland Americans and has played with New Orleans and Atlanta, in the Southern League, and a number of clubs in Class C organizations.

ANNUAL CONVENTION ENDS.

United Typothetae and Franklin Clubs Conclude Large Paper Exports.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 14.—Resolutions condemning large shipments of paper abroad and endorsing the plan for a three year educational campaign, which, it is estimated, will cost $1,000,000, were adopted by the United Typothetae and Franklin Clubs of America at the closing session of their 18th annual convention today. The convention endorsed the National standardization and uniformity plan and the proposition for a sound apprenticeship system.

Widewood, N. J., Sept. 14.—The Great Council of the United Improved Order of Red Men raised their newly elected and appointed chiefs at the final session of the council here today. The ceremonies were conducted by Joseph Farrar, of Philadelphia, Past Great Enclosure, assisted by Judge William H. Boyce, of Delaware.

National Honor With Peace. "To maintain our national honor by peace if we can, but by war if we must," declared Mr. Glynn. "Is the motto of Woodrow Wilson. The men in society's salons, lettered militants in libraries and wandering devotees of fashion who would fight on battle on the carpet of parlor trenches, in the restaurants of clubs, or amid the dangers of afternoon teas, may be primarily interested in the form of our diplomatic negotiations. But the men who must fight our battles where the cannon roars and bullets sing and death stalks—their wives, their sons, their daughters and their mothers—they are primarily interested in the result of our negotiations and not in the form. And the men who would do the fighting stand where Woodrow Wilson stands."

A large number of prominent Democrats, including National Chairman Vance McCormick, from all over the United States, were present at the notification. Informal political conferences were held by the leaders, and plans for the campaign were discussed thoroughly. Reports of what had been done in Indiana were made to National Chairman McCormick.

O. HENRY PRISON FAVORITE

Harold Wright is Next Popular Author at Ohio Penitentiary.

(Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch.)

"Is 'Anna Karenina,' by Tolstol, in?" "Let me have 'Barnaby Rudge' and Irving's 'Conquest of Spain.'"

"How many ahead of me for 'Herold Bell Wright's 'Their Yesterday'?" "Public library conversation!" It might be, but it's also what you can hear at the library of the state penitentiary, where 10,000 books and all the popular magazines are available for the prisoners. A set of O. Henry's books of stories, clubs and people throughout the state.

Many of the books are dirty and almost worn out by their constant reading. A set of O. Henry's books, given to the penitentiary a little more than a year ago is already showing signs of hard wear, because O. Henry's works are the most popular among the prisoners. This is partly because William Sidney Porter was once an inmate of the institution, but largely because of the intense human stories he told. The publishers of his latest authorized edition presented it to the penitentiary because of his earlier connection with the prison.

Harold Bell Wright is second in popularity as an author. Then come in order Jack London, E. Phillips Oppenheim, George Barr McCutcheon, Alexander Dumas, Honore de Balzac, Charles Dickens, Joseph Conrad, considered one of the finest writers in English at the present time, is rarely read by the prisoners. His diction is too fine is the reason given.

Not that the prisoners do not read good literature. Their 107-page catalogue of the library books has a goodly section devoted to "classical fiction," and according to the prisoner-librarian, the better educated men read the masters constantly. As a marked contrast to the best literature is the large number of juvenile books for the prisoners with little education.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD FOR BEST LETTERS

Sterchi-Bancroft Co. Letter Writing Contest Closes
at 6 o'clock Tonight

Write a Letter, and Tell Why This Lady Looks So Well Pleased and Contented—She is Mrs. Newlywed, Who Bought Her Furniture From the Above Mentioned Firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed recently started up housekeeping in this city, and decided to make their purchases from the store of the Sterchi-Bancroft Company. They furnished their home complete, selecting everything they needed from our mammoth stock of high, medium and cheaper grades of furniture.

They decided to buy everything they needed from this store. This decision was reached only after careful investigation and due deliberation. Before buying, they looked the entire town over and then did their trading here.

There was a good reason for this. Can you tell why? Can you tell why Mrs. Newlywed looks so well pleased and contented in this picture? If you can, write a letter about it; you may be repaid for your trouble.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY
Send in your letter today. Write it on one side of a sheet of paper. Be sure that it does not exceed five hundred words in length, and address it to Mrs. Newlywed, care Sterchi-Bancroft Company, Wilmington, N. C. You need not have to make any purchase, or obligate yourself in any way to enter your letter in the contest for consideration by a distinguished committee of three, who will make the awards, as follows: For the best and neatest letter, $5.00; for the next best, $3.00; and for the third best, $2.00. All letters must be in our store not later than Six P. M., Friday, September 15th.

Tell in your own language why the Newlyweds selected this store from all others to do their trading, and why Mrs. Newlywed looks so happy and well pleased.

The Sterchi-Bancroft Company reserves the right to display or publish any letter sent in, in competition.

EVERYBODY ELIGIBLE

Everybody that can write a letter is eligible to enter in this test of skill in letter writing and story telling. We want every one to express their personal opinions in their own way. Literary style is not at all necessary, and plain language, simple phrasing and neatness are the main requisites.

If there is anything concerning this proposition that is not fully clear to the reader, please call at the Sterchi-Bancroft Company's store, 108 North Front Street (Next to Woolworth's) or telephone 172. It may be a good plan to call at the store on a tour of inspection, so that you may better tell from observation what prompted Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed to buy.

THANKSGIVING GAME IN 1916.

Schedule of Baptist Eleven for the Season is Announced.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Wake Forest, N. C., Sept. 14.—With seven games scheduled, one pending, and one open date, the 1916 football schedule for the Wake Forest eleven is given out by Manager Carlyle. The schedule presents a number of chances from previous years, the most noticeable change being the cancellation of the annual Wake Forest-Davidson game in Charlotte on Thanksgiving Day. The Baptists are staging their Turkey Day classic in Greensboro this fall with Mercer University, of Georgia, as their opponents, while the Presbyterians are meeting Clemson in Charlotte.

The season opens on September 30 with the Baptists drawing the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as their first opponents.

The schedule follows:

September 30—University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

October 7—Gulfport College at Wake Forest.

October 19—A. & M. at Raleigh.

October 28—Open.

November 4—University of South Carolina at Columbia.

November 11—Wofford College at Wake Forest.

November 18—Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg.

November 25—Davidson College at Raleigh, (pending).

November 30—Mercer University at Greensboro (Thanksgiving).

CHARLOTTE EVENS UP IN SERIES WITH NASHVILLE

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 14.—Winning in the eleventh with a base on balls and Paschall's double after two were out, Charlotte this afternoon evened up the series with Nashville, taking the second game 3 to 2. The locals tied the score in the ninth, after two were out, when Singleton's single by first scored Nicholson from second. Redding retired from the mound in the tenth with an injured finger, after pitching beautiful ball against the Southern Association pennant winners. Marshall's hitting was a factor in the Nashville offensive with two triples and a double.

THE BATTING LEADERS.

Ty Cobb lost another three points Thursday by his failure to hit safely in four trials and is now 20 points behind Tris Speaker, who lost one point by making only one hit in four times up. Joe Jackson had the same record for the day and held his average of .348.

In the National League Hal Chase increased his lead by getting two safeties in twice as many attempts, while Daubert, with but one hit in four times up, surrendered second place to Hornsby, who made two in five. Wagner failed to land for a safety in four trials, losing three points, while Robertson held his average with one hit in four. The standing:

FAYETTEVILLE SCHOOLS OPEN.

Capacity of Buildings Expected to be Taxed—List of Teachers.(Special Star Correspondence.)
Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 14.—The Fayetteville city schools opened this morning with the largest attendance in the history of the school system. The enrollment in the white schools which opened today was approximately 900, which will increase as the term goes on. Superintendent W. S. Snipes said this morning that the opening was in every way encouraging and that the attendance for the year will be larger than that of 1915-16. In fact, the capacity of the school buildings was taxed today, and it is thought that the domestic science building at the Central school will have to be used for regular class-room purposes. The library at the Central school was pressed into service as a class room last year.

The 28 teachers in the four white schools this year, as announced by Superintendent Snipes, are as follows: High School—G. C. Davidson, principal; Miss Ethel Fisher, Miss Kate Broadfoot, Miss Estelle Davis, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. G. C. Worthington. Domestic Science—Miss Mildred Hancock, of Richmond, Va.; Drawing, Miss Roxie Dodd, Commercial Department, Miss Hattie Melano, of Rocky Mount.

Central School—Mrs. Kate Utley and Miss Mary Green, first grades; Miss Kate Matthews, second grade; Miss Isabel Bligh, third grade; Miss Annie Highsmith and Miss Fannie Nicholson, fourth grade; Miss Elizabeth Shell, of Henderson, fifth grade; Miss Margaret Whitehead, sixth grade; Miss De Luke Pinkston, of Wadesboro, and Mrs. W. T. Brock, seventh grade.

Donaldson School—Miss Marion McLean, principal; Miss Eleanor Huske, first grade; Miss Ellen Lamb, third grade; Miss Mamie Meeks, fourth grade; Miss Ruth Jones, fifth grade; Miss Lillie Lamb, sixth grade. Person Street School—Miss Pauline Jones, principal, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Bessie Highsmith, first grade; Miss Gladys Smith, second grade; Miss Lydia Holland, third grade.

LEROY WHITE NOT FOUND.

His Alleged Threat to Drown Himself
is Not Given Credence.(Special Star Correspondence.)
Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 14.—With rewards of $1,500 offered for his capture and every officer at any point of importance in several states notified, today, one week after the murder, Leroy T. White, the Bertie county farmer, is still at large. White, who is 27 years old, is badly wanted for the murder of his wife, who was Miss Salie Mountain, aged 23 years, who was beaten to death with the butt end of a revolver, and left to die locked in her own home and found seven hours later with her three-year-old son sobbing over the dead form.

While the fleeing man is said to have left a note declaring that he was going to drown himself and he was last seen going in the direction of the river, it is not generally thought that he did so. In fact, there is a fear that the man will return and attack two brothers of the dead woman and a guard has been established about their homes. A report from that section indicates that feeling is still at fever heat and that only prompt action of the authorities might prevent an effort to lynch White if he is found.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 14.—Newport News-Portsmouth post season series game was postponed on account of rain.

ON THE HALF-MILE TRACK

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Directum 1, world's champion pacing stallion, at the New York State fair ground circuit meeting today broke all records for a half mile by going the distance in 55 2-4 seconds. The former record of 56 1-4, held by Dan Patch, was made behind a windmill at Memphis in 1902.

Directum was paced by a running horse and covered the first quarter in 26 3-4 seconds, the fastest in pacing history.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 14.—George W. Fooshe, of the Memphis Country Club, today won the championship of the Tennessee Golf Association by defeating Don W. Rogers, of the Cherokee Country Club, Knoxville, 6 up and 5 to play in the final of the state tournament here.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—Harvard, as the result of today's matches in the Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at the Merion Cricket Club, retains the championship in singles. J. S. Pfaffman and G. Colkeri Caner, both of Harvard, will meet in the final round tomorrow.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 14.—R. D. Morgan, of Washington, D. C., won the Westy Hogan amateur trap shooting championship today by defeating Fred Plum, of Atlantic City, 40 to 39 in the shoot-off. Each broke three 100 targets straight in the main event.

TOP OF THE MORNING.

All the loud and elaborate professions of a selfish person cannot prove that the love of God is in him. He is only sounding brass if his practical deeds of charity do not equal his declarations. W. T. ELLIS.

It is hard to tell which side in Europe will get licked till the war gets to be a one-sided running fight.

When people sow trouble they reap
Dr. Book proposes to fly to the North west does more than any other kind of oil.

A doctor says there is nothing in whiskers, but he overlooks the fact that something is liable to get in them.

Our recollection is that it always has been a waste of time to look to Maine to set a good example to the balance of the country.

Mr. Henry Ford is trying to get $1-000,000 out of a newspaper. Up to this time Mr. Ford has not shown any evidence of "acting strange."

It is stated that the Hon. Bun-Tao de-Pole for $50,000. When Doc has an idea that people are liable to forget all about him he makes another proposition to induce us to part with our pocket change.

As soon as Americans found out that the whole world was not afraid that we would jump on it and lick it, they thought it was about time for sufficient preparation to keep some of the mutts
from thinking they could lick us.

The British government has decided that whiskey is a luxury. That naturally leads us to infer that some people in England must have regarded it as an ordinary article not to be taken with so much seriousness as to class.

Keep in the middle of the road and don't take to the woods with any kind of a poltroon. Forward looking men are too busy looking for the right way to stop on the way to look over an assessment of Republican gold bricks.

It is reported from Boston that Miss Mae Lette, who is a teacher in Chowan College, North Carolina, made the assertion that "any girl with dimples can twist a man around her little finger." Oh, well, we are not in any position to dispute it.

The fact that Maine went Republican need not worry anybody unless they care to take the trouble to be sorry for a state when it goes wrong. It doesn't indicate a thing but the usual amount of foolishness that Maine indulges in at almost every election.

Republicans who could not stand for Colonel Bryan and grape juice heartily sommend Huerta, the brandy fiend.
They think the dictator was a strong man, but our recollection is that he fanned out on his last round with John Barleycorn. About the time the old Indian went to Europe he should have gone to Keeley.

The Florida papers are puzzled over the political ubiquity and merely seeming vacillation of the Jacksonville Times-Union. Have they never thought that the T-U has a way of its own to be entertaining by means of intellectual athletics? A daily change of programme keeps the audience from getting so drowsy that it can't indulge in the exhilaration of anticipation.

The Republican candidate's criticism of feared the Hon. Dwyer for re-election as governor of Anam because Governor Tan appointed a white man as notary public. However, the chief issue in our presidential campaign is almost as important as the issue in that Chinese campaign. The Republican candidate for president wants to be elected president because the Democratic president refused to recognize an Indian as a strong man and trustworthy statesman in Mexico.

REDEMPTION FROM THE DAYS OF FOLLY

North Carolinians can take a serious lesson from the menace recently impending in the nominating primaries held in South Carolina. After all, the people of the Palmetto state demonstrated in their run-over primary that they favor decorum in high office and fixed and orderly purpose in the administration of the laws of the state. The renomination of Governor Manning for a second term of two years shows that South Carolina wants to regain her complete equilibrium and once more justify her claims to the state pride that was once the glory of her people.

A state is no better than its government, for it represents the character and tone and spirit of the people who constitute the state. The South Carolinians seem to have recollected that in approving the genteel administration of Manning during the past two years.
His orderly statecraft was the beginning of a sane readjustment of the social revolution that occurred in that state when Tillman fancied that he was reckoning with an oligarchy, the overthrow of which left in its train, a strange psychology that in a generation made Bismarck possible. When we saw the whirlwind in the name of reform we are bound to reap more whirlwind than reform, but it is a pity that the reform movement produced only the one Tillman who could handle a social revolution and a whirlwind at the same time.

When Senator Tillman left the State for a higher sphere he left both whirlwind and reform in the keeping of those who possessed ineptitude for reform, but made the most of the whirlwind. Senator Tillman himself frowned at the psychology which produced a Blease and which has made South Carolina a by-word and reproach outside of the state.

There is a new reconstruction period in South Carolina, and during his two years of administration Governor Manning has shown that he was mastering
a readjustment to which the state was responding in a way typifying social conscience. Hundreds of South Carolnians in Wilmington and throughout North Carolina are rejoicing that Manning's heroic fight for a better day for the state has met with the approval of a people whose spirit is in a state of recruitment. Under two more years of an orderly-minded man of his type there is chance for complete renaissance from the hullabaloo era which has done great injustice to a state whose past glory may be dimmed by passing clouds but never permanently overcast by any iconoclastic pall.

moral maxim that is good for South Carolina, and, lest we forget, the good old North State at this time has reason to reflect that while she is right she had better stay right. North Carolina has had her periods of the social unrest that bodes no good for any people, but the eclipse period which darkened the way passed away, leaving a stain only upon the upheavalism responsible for reconstruction in the post-bellum period and fusion and confusion in the days of social unrest
nearly a quarter of a century ago.

North Carolina cast off her latter-day woe in 1895, eighteen years ago,
and yet the ghost of fusion is hovering around and the malicious and sinister figures of that dark day are looming up as the leaders of a "respectable Republican party," in spite of the fact that the pernicious leadership of 22 years ago has come back because it has not had enough funerals to keep it from being the same old spotted leopard stealthily coming forth from its lair.

North Carolinians had to redeem their State in 1895, and we should not think that they would want to take chances on having to do it again.
While North Carolina is right, loyal Tar Heels had better keep her right.
There is a new generation since the black pall of fusion hung over North Carolina, but the older heads remember in shame and bitterness the gloom and reproach under which the State suffered from 1894 to 1895.

"Nevermore" ought to be the 1916 slogan for North Carolina patriots, and they should follow the lead of Bickett and the party which has had to redeem North Carolina twice. Why again? Nevermore!

EDITOR PATTON RETIRES.

The Star regrets to note the retirement of Editor Joe C. Patton from the staff of the Charlotte News, but we regret more than anything else that he was compelled to resign his post because of a nervous breakdown. For some weeks Mr. Patton has not been able to do his newspaper work and the doctors pronounced it a case of "nerves", with the recommendation of a rest cure, for at least a while. We hope it will be only a short while, yet
Mr. Patton feels that a change of occupation is necessary as a means of restoring his physical powers.

No one who knows of the work that Joe Patton has been doing on The News is surprised that he has been compelled to lay down a work that he loved too well. He has been on The News for eleven years and we have seen him when he seemed to think it was up to him to do as much as two men could do. He worked on a high gear and was always on the job, using his fine mental powers and utilizing his full physical powers and splendid genius as a versatile newspaper maker.
There is a limit to the amount of work that Editor Patton has been accomplished to doing and he had a way of always doing it right now. We have often wondered how he could do it, but he did it till it has done him. Yet, we hope he will come back, for he is an all-round good newspaper man, the valuable kind who knows the game in all its details.

It is announced that Editor Patton is succeeded by Mr. Julian S. Miller, an able and versatile newspaper man who has had much experience in the harness on the daily newspapers of Charlotte. Mr. Miller has been supplying for Editor Patton during the several weeks the latter has been off the job.
In him The News has an editor of ripe experience and splendid ability, well fitted for the work he is doing.

DOLLARS DUMPED AT HOME STAY THERE

If you could convince all our people, as the management of the Southern Railway is convinced, we would have many more millions of dollars kept at home for circulation and general business and industrial purposes.
Well, the Southern Railway's lines run through the South, it depends upon Southern territory for its freight and passenger traffic, and the consequence is that when it has to buy something it makes it a rule to buy it in its own territory, if the desired commodity or article can be had. The railroad folks have a reason for doing that, as we don't know of any railroad that has ever done anything just for fun.

Well, if the Southern has a dollar to spend it spends it somewhere along its various lines of railway where the money is liable at any time to come back to the railroad through the hands of some passenger or by means of the every day business of those who pay the freight. Of course, the railroad wants to do the best it can by its territory, but it does not do so for the sake of popularity, but as a simple matter of business—railroad business especially. The Southern does business that way for the sake of its own business and necessarily it is a good thing for all lines of business.
Every dollar spent in a railroad's territory comes back in some way, just as grains of wheat are sown and later gathered in as a harvest which takes its place as a commercial commodity to be bought and sold and shipped and consumed in its merchantable shape.

The fact is, the Southern wants to give its own money a chance to come back to the railroad, as that money goes from one hand to the other and is bound to get in the trade channels that run right to the railroad. Therefore, it is business for the railroad to spend
its money in its own territory, since it is a good thing to do for the immediate benefit of the territory and the ultimate if not immediate advantage of the railroad. Indeed, railroads help themselves by helping their territory in every possible way that they can. It would be about as foolish for a railroad to do injury to its territory as it was for the ancient and fabled mutt who killed the goose that laid the golden egg. Of course, all of us do things now and then to the hurt of our own business and its possibilities, but that is because we don't know when it's loaded. It is ever so that we stand in our own light sometimes, but we won't do it unless we have a head like a chicken.

These few remarks do not end this story at all, for it has a moral and the moral is what we are chasing right up to everybody who is sending their money to distant points under the idea that they are saving a little something.
They are not saving a cent, but doing damage to their own opportunities and to the possibilities of the home town,
and sooner or later their employment,
business and residence chances get a crimp in them when their town dries up and all but blows away. Those of us who kill our town without knowing it are just the same as those who do not know when a gun is loaded and we have about the same genius for reason as the asphed who killed his or her gold producing goose under the mistaken idea of getting rich quick.

On Monday last, according to the Columbia State, President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway, sent a check to the Columbia postoffice for $4,250 worth of stamps. He would not purchase them at his nearest postoffice but bought them in Columbia for use in the Columbia territory of his railroad. He not only got the stamps but helped to swell Columbia's postoffice receipts and thereby increase its importance and standing so that the statistics can be used now and then by the newspapers to point out the wonderful growth of business and the highly satisfactory development of Columbia, as shown by the ever reliable postoffice receipts.

President Harrison left $4,250 in Columbia and it will show up in her postoffice receipts and in her bank clearings, and, of course, it all counts in Columbia's annual volume of trade. All of us ought to be helping the volume of trade of our cities and our territory for the simple reason that every dollar we spend at home is a dollar at which we will get another chance.
Perhaps for the sake of a jitney, we will kiss our money good-bye forever and send it away to swell the volume of trade of some other city. President Harrison would not do that, however,
for his head is too long to deliberately help to lessen the traffic possibilities in the supporting territory of his roads.

We understand that there are people all over the South who are sending Southern money to distant trade centers for bargains. In doing so they are doing something to themselves and to their towns. We ran on a good illustration of it once ourselves in the instance of a live wire who was conducting, at one time, a flourishing industry. He bought commodities and supplies by the wholesale from way off yonder, for he once showed up his goods and figured up something like 30 cents that he had saved. Later he had to shut down his industry and he complained that his town was retrograding and that business had dried up. He pointed to a large department store that was about as quiet as a church, and his remark was that the merchant had let his business go to pieces.

The gentleman with the shut-down
industry put it all over the merchants for their lack of enterprise and for letting the town get like a cemetery,
but we came to the rescue of the merchants because we had a good chance.
We had to remind our friend that the merchants had not done anything to themselves or their town, but that those guilty of killing the industry and business of their town were those who were patronizing mercantile and business establishments in some other town. They sent their money away and made it dull in the home town as a simple matter of course.

The town killers ought to wake up and recognize themselves as nearly every reason there is why their town is on the bum. Sending away to some other town a great volume of money that belongs to the home town is the contributing element which slowly but surely and silently results in the cem-eterization of the home town. Many a man who thinks he is a live wire is some town killer himself. So are some merchants who do not patronize home industries.

THE JUG TRADE IS YET ALIVE

In the Charlotte Observer we note that the manufacture of jugs is still in existence in Western North Carolina.
Leastwise, the Observer copies this from the Davis Record, of Mocksville:
"A wagon load of Catawba county
jugs, crocks and jars arrived here Wednesday and were quickly disposed of to the various merchants."

The manufacture of jugs and jars and crocks greatly flourished in the days of yore. In the days of "mountain dew" the traveller on the highways in the piedmont and the mountains ran across a jug factory on most any old road. Mecklenburg county used to have two jug factories, strictly rural industries, that we used to pass on a five-teen-mile drive to the Queen City, now
the "City of Electrical Energy," both of which are good aliases for Charlotte.

The local jug factories used load up their wares in "mountain schooners"
and they called at the country stores and the rural homes and were always welcome on their rounds. Really, there is no reason why the ceramic industry should not flourish in Western North Carolina, for the geologists state that the several varieties of clays to be had in great abundance are among the best to be found in America.

WHY MR. WILSON DID NOT GO TO WAR WITH MEXICO

To the Editor of The Star:
Why have we not gone to war with Mexico? We have had a series of provocations that were sufficient. The Car-rizal affair seemed even to demand us to throw a large force into Mexico and clean up the country. But Mr. Hughes and the Colonel, if their talk means anything, think we ought to have done
so. Each has been saying to the country, in substance, "If I had had the reins of government, we would have avenged the insults of Carranza, and our boys on the border would be taste-
ing the joys of real war and slaughter, instead of suffering the awful pangs of ennui from inaction."

Then, why have we not gone to war with Mexico?
The foremost reason is that this country did not want war. We do not mean simply Mr. Wilson, on the Democratic party ticket, but the country as a whole did not want to go to war with Mexico. Those who are lambasting the administration for our continued peace with Mexico are flying in the face of the people and are presumably making votes for Mr. Wilson.

If the country had wanted war, the country could have had war. The responsibility does not rest on the President alone. Those who are informed know that a president has no authority to declare war. Congress alone has that authority, and Congress could have declared war on Mexico long ago, if this country had wanted it.
President McKinley did not want war with Spain—at least, not so soon—but after the destruction of the battleship Maine, in Cuban waters, Mr. McKinley could not hold back Congress from declaring war on Spain. But in the trouble with Mexico, even since the attack of Carranza soldiers on our troops at Carrizal, no man in Congress, not even a Republican or shouter for Mr.
Hughes in his assaults on the administration for keeping the peace with Mexico, has drawn a bill favoring war.
They all let Congress adjourn without availing themselves of the opportunity to distinguish themselves. If they wanted war, or some other Mexican policy, why did they not have the courage to introduce a bill and start something?

Faintly they were, Republicans and all, satisfied to let Mr. Wilson keep this country out of war, though many of them are now ready, since the country is safe, to holler, "Hurrah for Hughes!" every time he condemns the administration for tiding it over the dangers.

But why did Mr. Wilson not take steps to avenge the Carrizal outrage and bring matters to such a head that war would have been unavoidable? Mr.
Hughes and the Colonel say it was "weakness and cowardice." [This is the place to laugh.] Woodrow Wilson,
at the head of a great country like this,
weak-kneed and afraid to attack a little and enfeebled country like Mexico, from his seat in Washington? The gentlemen will have to guess again. If they would go back to the lesson which they ought to have learned in Sunday school, they might make a better guess next time.

It is no secret that charges have been made and preferred to the President and to Congress that plots have been hatched on an American soil, con-jointly with Mexican and American citizens, to embroil this country with Mexico and overthrow Carranza, to further certain avaricious and iniquitous interests. Hence the raid of Villa into New Mexico, the attack at Car-rizal, etc. If that is true, crime has been committed against Mexico by American citizens, as well as vice versa, and we may suspect that Mr.

Wilson is getting wiser to the game
than his opponents; or with the reason to the front. The latest news is to the effect that a handsome bank building is to be erected there in the very near future and that many other improvements are going on in the town. Jack-

HEALTH IS WEALTH by John B. Huber, A.M., M.D.

Death has not only particular stars in Heaven, but also malevolent places on earth, which sing out our infirmities and strike at our weakest points.—Sir Thomas Browne.

Smallpox I.

S MALLPOX is an infection, the germ of which, as in measles and other diseases, has not yet been discovered, being a virus probably so minute as to be "ultramicroscopic"—that is, beyond the detection of the highest powered instrument thus far perfected. The smallpox virus however is manifest by its effects, in the contents of the smallpox eruption, in the sufferer's nose and throat secretions, and in his bowel and kidney discharges. One attack of smallpox generally, though not invariably, confers immunity for life.
Direct contact with the patient does not appear to be necessary to contract the disease; and the poison may be conveyed by a "carrier," who is not himself affected.

The smallpox incubation period is from ten days to a fortnight.
Then comes the invasion, suddenly, with one or more chills in adults or with convulsions in children. There is a pain in the back and extremities, headache, vomiting and rapid rise of temperature, to 103 or 104 degrees. On the fourth day of the invasions appears the characteristic eruption of the disease. This comes as red pin head papules on the forehead along the line of the hair and on the wrists, spreading within twenty-four hours over the face, extremities, trunk and mucous membranes. With the appearance of this rash the temperature falls and all the symptoms diminish in intensity. On the fifth or sixth day the papules become crater-like blisters with clear fluid contents. About the eighth day these become pustular and their summits globular;
whilst the surrounding skin is red, swollen and painful. At the same time there is a return of the constitutional symptoms with renewed rise of temperature for about a day. Drying begins on the tenth or eleventh day. Then crusts form on the papules, the swelling of the skin disappears, and the temperature gradually falls. The crusts fall off, leaving only scars where the true skin has been destroyed. There is a confluent form of smallpox, in which the papules, especially on the face and extremities, come very close together. The face may become practically one single dreadful abscess. Here the drying begins on the 13th day and the scarring, which is considerable, may require three or four weeks.
This subject will be continued tomorrow.

RINGING IN THE EARS.
S. N. writes: What is the cause and what's the cure of that distressing accompaniment, ringing in the ears?

Answer: Doctors call this tinnitus aurium. It is a ringing, roaring or hissing sound heard in the ears in various drum and internal ear troubles. It comes on also after taking such drugs as quinine and salicylic acid; and it follows blows on the head. It is a prominent symptom in all nervous ear affections. Other causes are arteriosclerosis, anemia, deranged digestion and cerebral congestion (fullness in the head). It sometimes precedes fainting spells.
Business generally accompanies it.

IRRITABLE TEMPER.
Answer to M. I. A.: This is generally temperamental. And yet outbursts of anger or peevishness or querulousness or of "pure cussedness" may clear up with the cure of gout, rheumatism, jaundice, neuros-thenia or chronic invalidism. A notable change of the habitual temper, usually from placid to fretful, is noticed in cases of typhoid fever in the second week, in epileptics and in the early stages of goitre.

FORGET POLITICS TO DISCUSS GOOD ROADS

Republicans and Democrats Meet on Common Ground in Pender

United States Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, Was One of Speakers at Good Roads Meeting Held Near Watha.

While the time has not yet arrived when the lion and the lamb can meet together as friends, the day is already here when Republicans and Democrats can fraternize together in a common cause, as was proven yesterday at the good roads rally held at the home of Mr. A. T. Herring near Watha in Columbia township of Pender county, when addresses were made by prominent Republicans, including United States Senator Moses E. Clapp, of St. Paul, Minn., and Maj. George E. Butler, of Clinton, and by such loyal Democrats as Congressman George E. Hood, of Goldboro, and Messrs. W. A. McGirt, W. D. MacMillan, Jr., and L. B. Sasser, of Wilmington.

It was quite fitting that County Farm Demonstrator J. P. Herring, who once lived in Columbia township, should be called to preside at the meeting, which was held for the purpose of arousing interest in the cause of good roads, particularly with a view to carrying an election to authorize a bond issue in Columbia township for $20,000. It was also a splendid tribute to Mr. Herring that the people of that township should call on him to preside, and, of course, he performed that duty in a becoming manner.

Sandwiched in between two very interesting and profitable meetings at which stirring and eloquent addresses were made in the interest of improved roads and the need of community development, one of those old-fashioned dinners was served in the beautiful grove of trees near Mr. Herring's home and there was a plenty for every one of the several hundred in attendance.

After the addresses, the citizens of that community held a meeting of their own, for the purpose of organizing the Columbia township good roads association and a committee to appoint a perfect the organization. It was an eventful day for that progressive community and its good results will be far-reaching.

The people came together at the rally for the purpose of stirring up enthusiasm looking to the election for the bond issue and from every standpoint it was a splendid success. Politics were forgotten for the time being and both speakers and hearers joined together in a pledge to advance the cause of improved highways.

Those attending the rally from Wilmington included Chairman W. A. McGirt, of the Board of Commerce; Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., a member of the Board of Commissioners, Farm Demonstrator J. P. Herring and Mr. L. B. Sasser.

Addresses at the morning meeting were made by Mr. D. T. Brown, one of the State highway engineers; Commissioner MacMillan, Chairman McGirt and Mr. Sasser. At the afternoon meeting Congressman Hood, Major Butler and Senator Clapp spoke.

Senator Clapp, one of the prominent Republicans of the Northwest and for the past 18 years United States Senator from Minnesota, who is spending a few days as a guest at the home of his home in Clinton, and incidentally is making a few speeches in the interest of the candidacy of the latter for Congressman Hood's toga, made an eloquent address in which he showed the importance of progress and development, and explained thoroughly how good roads are one of the essential elements in this direction. He urged the farmers and their sons and daughters to remain on the farm, pointing out the great possibilities that the future holds out for them, and suggested that no farmer should ever consent to sell an acre of his land. Stock raising should be encouraged, the Senator said, and incidentally he endorsed heartily the proposition to build a packing house in Wilmington.

Congressman Hood made a splendid address in which he took the interest in Pender county and its progress and particularly of his desire to see the roads improved. He explained the object of the Federal aid bill for building highways throughout the country and declared that he never stood ready to do anything he could in helping communities to secure good roads.

Major Butler, one of the original promoters of the Wilmington-Fayetteville highway along with Chairman McGirt and Commissioner MacMillan, of New Hanover and others, made an eloquent plea for opening up this highway to the City by the Sea, explaining that as a resident of one of the interior towns, he desired an outlet to the ocean, and also spoke of the work that Sampson county has done and stated that personally he favored having the highway come through Columbia township. He congratulated the people of that section on the interest they are showing and expressed the hope that they would not only improve the link of the highway that goes through their township but would improve all the roads of that section, as he believed they would.

Chairman McGirt, who spoke at the morning session, gave a comprehensive resume of the work being done in building highways connecting up all parts of North Carolina and declared that this State is keeping step with the most progressive commonwealths of the South in this line. He showed the importance of Columbia township voting bonds for road improvement, stating that practically the only link in the Wilmington-Fayetteville highway for which provision has not been made for improvement is in that township as Grady township in Pender has already taken steps to this end and Cumberland and Sampson counties are rapidly getting their roads in splendid shape. He explained the advantage of good roads towards building up the sections through which they pass. It was indeed a delight, he declared, to see such interest shown and he believed that such gatherings are the omens of a better and a brighter day.

Commissioner MacMillan emphasized the importance of good roads as a means of linking up different sections and making them readily accessible to each other. It is a day of co-operation, he explained, when the people are learning that in unity there is strength and that without coming together in a common cause they cannot hope to accomplish very much.

Mr. L. B. Sasser, pioneer advocate of a packing house for Wilmington, was enthusiastic in his endorsement of the interest that is being aroused for good

MAYARO WILL TAKE ON COAL TO RIGHT CARGO

First Foreign Passenger Ship In Wilmington In Several Years

Heavy Northeast Wind Of Hatteras Caused Breaking of Partition—Survvey of Ship Made by the Port Wardens Here.

Listing about eight degrees to the port side, due to shifting of her cargo of asphalt when the vessel was caught in a northeast gale off the Carolina coast Tuesday, the British freight and passenger line Mayaro yesterday about noon put into port in Wilmington. She is docked at one of the slips at the Champion Compress and arrangements have been made for righting her there. The ship sought harbor at Southport Wednesday morning as a precaution against possible accident at sea, although there was no immediate danger. She is bound from Port of Spain, Trinidad, to New York, and in addition to her freight cargo carries a list of 51 passengers and a crew of 48 members.

Capt. A. Y. Drysdale, who is in charge of the Mayaro, proposes to right his vessel by taking on several hundred tons of coal, which will be loaded on the starboard side. This will be done upon recommendation of Port Warden E. D. Williams and W. N. Harris, who made a survey of the vessel after she docked here yesterday. Should loading of the coal prove sufficient to render the ship seaworthy she will probably clear some time today and proceed on her voyage to New York. The passengers will remain aboard the vessel while in port here, as the immigration laws make this necessary.

Quite a complicated question arose after the Mayaro arrived in quarantine at Southport Wednesday, when the question of landing the passengers, pending the righting of the vessel, was discussed. As there is no provision at the quarantine station for caring for persons subject to immigration regulations, the local quarantine authorities wired to Washington for instructions. It was learned yesterday that no action could be taken as it would be necessary for immigration officials to come here from Norfolk and virtually establish an immigration office before passengers could be landed.

It is expected that the vessel will right herself when the coal is loaded on the starboard side. If this proves sufficient no effort will be made to refloat the cargo. However, should it fail to right the vessel it would be necessary to remove and re-load part of the cargo, which shifted when the rough seas encountered caused a partition in hold No. 2 to give way. The cargo consists mainly of asphalt. The Mayaro, owned by the Trinidad Shipping & Trading Company and trading between the British West Indian ports and New York, originally sailed from Port of Spain, but is entered at the customs offices here from Grenada, the last port at which the ship was touched. She is of 3,511 tons and is the first foreign-owned passenger and freight liner to put in at this port in many years. She is registered under Lloyd's shipping agency and is consigned to Alex. Sprunt & Son, Mr. James Sprunt of that firm being Lloyd's agent here.

One of the passengers aboard the Mayaro is Mr. W. P. Joyce, a native Tar Heel and a graduate of the University of North Carolina, who has been in South America for the last 18 months engaged in work for the Rockefeller research Commission. He has a number of friends in Wilmington and had to content himself with a passing salutation as the immigration laws kept him from coming ashore and no visitors are being entertained on the vessel by the officers of the ship.

About fifteen large pouches of first-class mail were transferred from the steamer to the Wilmington postoffice last evening, and forwarded to New York on A. C. L. train No. 90, this morning.

METHODIST WOMEN TO MEET

Wilmington District to Hold Annual Session at Rose Hill

A talk by Miss Ida Hankins, a returned missionary from China, will be one of the features of the meeting of the Wilmington District of the Women's Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, which will be held at Rose Hill, October 11 and 12. The announcement that Miss Hankins will be present was made by Mrs. W. F. Murphy, district secretary.

It is expected that all first and second auxiliary vice-presidents, as well as delegates from each Adult, Young People's and Bright Jewel Auxiliaries, will be present at this meeting. It is also expected to have present on this occasion representatives from every church in the district, where there is no auxiliary. The names of delegates should be sent as early as possible to Mrs. H. E. Boney, Rose Hill, N. C., says Mrs. Murphy.

DEATH OF MRS. MILLER

Chadbourne Lady Passed Away in Hospital Yesterday Morning

After an illness of two weeks, Mrs. E. H. Miller, of Chadbourne, died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Miller was 83 years of age and is survived by her husband and four children, Messrs. C. E. Carl and James Miller and Miss Pearl Miller, all of Chadbourne. The remains were taken to Chadbourne on the 3:45 train yesterday afternoon. Interment will be made this morning.

roads. He explained the advantages that will accrue from having a packing house in Wilmington and pointed out that good roads are a very important part of the progress of the State without them this section cannot hope to grow as it should.

Mr. D. Tucker Brown, who is working in Pender county on the survey of the Wilmington-Fayetteville highway, explained the provisions of the Federal aid act for assisting in the improving of roads and also explained how application should be made for help. It was a very interesting and profitable address and was heard with much interest.

Senator Clapp was very much interested in the proposition to build a packing house in Wilmington and promised to come down to attend the organization meeting next Tuesday if he is in North Carolina at that time.

COMMITTEES ARE BUSY PREPARING FOR SHOW

Booklet To Be Issued Giving Particulars Of Big Display

New Hanover and Surrounding Communities Planning for Corn and Agricultural Show to be Held Here in November.

A booklet containing full particulars of the rules and regulations and list of prizes aggregating more than $1,000 in money for exhibits for the fourth annual Corn and Agricultural Show to be held in Wilmington, November 17th to 19th, inclusive, will be issued within the next few days and will be distributed throughout the nine counties that will participate in the event.

The list of prizes is a comprehensive one and will include awards for all kinds of exhibits including livestock, agricultural products, poultry, kitchen and household supplies, fancy work and art displays, for displays as well as a large number of miscellaneous things. The prizes will be sufficiently large to make it worth while for those having anything creditable to show to bring them to the fair.

This is the first time that a booklet has been issued giving particulars of the annual fair held here and it is expected that it will result in arousing a greater interest than has heretofore been shown.

The counties that have been invited to participate in the fair besides New Hanover are Brunswick, Bladen, Columbus, Duplin, Onslow, Pender, Robeson and Sampson, in addition to prizes for individual exhibits there will also be prizes for the county having the best display.

The executive committee which has general charge of the arrangements for the Corn and Agricultural Show has appointed sub-committees to take charge of the different features. These committees, with their chairmen are: Field crops, Mr. J. P. Herring, Wilmington; garden crops, Mr. J. P. Herring; livestock, Mr. R. T. Melvin, Supply; poultry, pigeons and pet stock, Mr. J. T. Bland, Jr., Burgaw; pantry supplies, Mrs. John Thames, Wilmington; fruits, Mr. G. A. Macle, Wilmington; fancy work, Miss Maude Bulluck, Wilmington; art, Mrs. W. A. French, Jr., Wilmington; education, Mrs. M. L. Stover, Wilmington; miscellaneous, Mr. Hugh MacRae, Wilmington; first prize, Mrs. A. MacRae, Wilmington; dining room, Mrs. J. G. Barentine and Mrs. W. L. Beery.

The place for holding the show has not yet been determined upon but it is probable that the same plan of using tents will be followed this year as was done last year with fine success. It is also being suggested that the building on Castle street, between Third and Fourth, which was erected for the Chapman-Alexander meetings, might be used for this purpose.

The executive committee is planning to give wide publicity to the show during the next few months. The show will be on a much more extensive scale than ever before.

COTTON AGAIN 15 CENTS

Steady Increase in the Market For the Past Three Days in Wilmington

Cotton on the local market continued to advance yesterday, the quotation being 15 cents. Receipts totaled 650 bales for the day, or 13,305 since the beginning of the new season August 1st. The quotation was the same as last year was 10 cents, while the receipts were 600 bales, making a total of 3,757 bales since the opening of the 1915 season.

It now appears that the price will again soar to the high level reached on August 31st, which was 15 1/2 cents—a price not reached before in a number of years. Indications are that this high level will even be surpassed and that 20 cent cotton, as predicted by some cotton experts, will be reached for the new crop staple.

The advance on the various markets of the country, yesterday was due largely to the government consumption report for the past month. This report showed that 94,000 more bales were consumed in August of this year than during the same month last year, the total used being 384,717 bales. The report also showed that the total consumption from July 31, 1915, to July 31, 1916, was over 6,000,000 bales, exclusive of lint—an increase of almost 1,000,000 bales over the previous year. This increased consumption will more than offset the increased production indicated in the government forecast issued earlier in the month.

TEACHERS MEET SATURDAY

Superintendent Catlett Will Issue Regulations and Make Plans for Year

Prof. Washington Catlett, superintendent of public instruction of New Hanover county, will hold a conference with the teachers of the city schools at 10:30 Saturday morning in the Hemenway school building. Practically all the teachers will have arrived in the city by that time and plans will be made at this meeting for the year's school programme. Registers will be issued to all the teachers, and other preparations made for the coming session. Professor Catlett is expected to present a number of suggestions and anticipates considerable advancements along educational lines. A splendid corps of teachers have been secured.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

Frying Pan Shoals Buoy Reported Adrift 23 Miles from Light Vessel

Inspector H. L. Beck, of the Bureau of Lighthouses, Charleston, S. C., has given notice that the Frying Pan Shoals Gas whistling and submarine bell buoy 2-A, "FP", is reported adrift on September 12, 1916, 23 miles, 207 degrees, from Frying Pan Shoals Light Vessel. Should this report prove to be true, the buoy will be replaced as soon as possible.

TO COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

Scott's Hill Credit Union Will Hold Meeting Tonight

The Scott's Hill Credit Union, the first of its kind to be organized in New Hanover county, will meet at 8 o'clock this evening in the Scott's Hill school house to complete plans for a permanent organization. Prof. Walter E. Camp, of Raleigh, state organizer, will be present. The public is cordially invited to attend.

PLAN MEDICAL INSPECTION

Physicians Volunteer Services For Work in City Schools—Equipment Needed for Dental Clinics

Plans are in course of development by the Health Department for medical inspection of the schools in Wilmington through the voluntary services of physicians. Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer, announced yesterday. This will be in addition to the work of the public health nurse which was inaugurated last year.

It is also planned to establish a dental clinic for school children. Dr. Nesbitt stated, and one of the prominent dentists of the city has volunteered his services for this purpose, and the Health Department is confident that other dentists will be glad upon invitation to help in this work just as the physicians have already done.

The principal obstacle in the way of establishing the dental clinic is a fund with which to secure a dental chair and a dental drill. "Our experience in the past leads us to believe," said Dr. Nesbitt, "that these necessities will be gladly provided by some organization or philanthropist."

Two physicians have already volunteered to aid in the medical inspection and it is planned, if the services of other physicians can be secured, to have examinations of all grades in the public schools on the order adopted in some of the larger cities of the country, each physician being assigned to a school at which he will be in attendance. Through this means it is hoped to get the physical condition of each pupil in the city schools reduced to record and to secure the correction of all physical defects that are found. It is believed that the inspection will prove of invaluable service in preventing sickness and in securing the very best results from the school courses.

Dr. Nesbitt stated that quite a number of children have been vaccinated preparatory to the opening of the schools this fall. All children entering school for the first time, who have not been vaccinated, must be given the vaccination and those unsuccessfully vaccinated last year will also be required to be vaccinated again before entering school this year. A great deal of time and annoyance can be saved by having this done now.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED

IN THE MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON

Chamber of Commerce to Hold "Get Together" Meeting at Hotel

The splendid programme arranged for the Chamber of Commerce organization luncheon at the Hotel Wilmington, Wednesday, September 20th, at 1 p. m., is attracting a great deal of interest and from all indications there will be a large attendance of members present.

Some 375 invitations were mailed out to members Wednesday and although the time for replies has been very short the responses have been all that could be expected. The work of the membership committee under the Chamber of Commerce has been progressing in a manner that is very gratifying to the officers of the chamber and the success of the present undertaking will mean more revenue for the chamber and much more work through the organization in the interest of Wilmington and this section.

Those who have consented to speak at the luncheon are Judge George Rountree, Col. Walker Taylor, J. G. Christ McCormick, Esq., Thos. E. Cooper, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., Herbert McClammy, Esq., J. H. Renner and Robert Jackson. The subjects are already announced, but the program in the interest of the new membership plan and the general work of the Chamber of Commerce for Wilmington.

REVIVAL AT WRIGHTSBORO

Unusual Interest Being Manifested in Evangelical Services

Seldom has as much interest been aroused in a revival meeting there as is being manifested in the evangelical services being held at Wrightsboro Baptist church. According to a report from Wrightsboro, "The old time gospel messages are being delivered with force and power. Sin and the devil are being fought by a vehement way without compromise. Large crowds are greeting us at every service." The subject last night was "The Unreasonableness of Unbelief."

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a special service was held for women only. The subject was "The Sins of Women."

TO HOLD REVIVAL

Dr. John Jeter Hurt to Begin Services October 20

Beginning October 20, Rev. Dr. John Hurt, who is the pastor of the First Baptist church, of which he is pastor, Dr. Hurt, although he has been in Wilmington but a short time, has already demonstrated here that he is a preacher of great ability and is rapidly growing in popularity. The song services will be a special feature of this revival, and a choir leader, who is a member of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, has been secured to aid in this branch of the work. This will enjoy a treat during these services. Joy a treat during these services.

PAYMENTS EXCEED RECEIPTS

Report of Associated Charities Shows Deficit

That the disbursements of the Associated Charities last month exceeded the receipts by over $80 is shown by the report of the treasurer, which has just been issued. The report is as follows: Receipts, New Hanover county, $200; H. W. King, $50; Mrs. M. W. H. Disbrow, $25; Secretary's salary, $33.33; Catherine Kennedy Home, $12.60; groceries, $20.21; rent for those in need, $19; cash help, $11; telephone, $2.33; janitor, $1.20.

Major Little at Clarkson

Clarkson Journal: "Mr. Joseph W. Little, of Wilmington, was here last week, greeting his many friends. He predicted a big majority for Mr. Godwin next November and the re-election of President Wilson. Mr. Little further stated that if Mr. Godwin, the state or county organization desired him to make any address before election, he would gladly do so."

ROSS KENNEDY CONVICTED

Sentenced to Roads for Three Months for Running Down Deems Padgett—Appeal Taken.

The trial of Ross Kennedy, charged with running down young Deems Padgett with an automobile on Fifth street, some few weeks ago, was finally concluded in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, when he was sentenced by Recorder Emple to serve three months on the county roads, through his attorney, Wocous Kellum, Esq.

Kennedy served notice of appeal and was released on $100 bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior court.

Kennedy's trial began Monday. After all available evidence had been taken, Recorder Emple granted a stay of 24 hours for the defense to produce a witness whom they claimed was very material. Failing to produce this witness at Tuesday morning's session, a further extension was granted by the Recorder until yesterday. As the witness was still missing yesterday morning, the case was closed.

Henry Clemmons, the negro who ran into the telephone pole at Sixth and Red Cross streets, Wednesday afternoon while smashing the city speed ordinance in several different forms, was fined $5 and taxed with the costs. Mr. E. A. Bell, charged with a violation of the driving ordinance was fined $2.50. The State took a nol pro in the case of Perry Clemmons, a 13-year-old white boy, who was charged with the larceny of a bicycle.

TAMPA RELIEVES SEMINOLE

Local Cutter Will Be Overhauled For Fall Cruise

Captain Preston H. Ueberroth, commanding the coast guard cutter Seminole has received wireless orders that the cutter Tampa will relieve the Seminole, while the latter is being overhauled and put into shape for the fall and winter cruises. The Tampa is stationed at Charleston, and will patrol the coast of the Carolinas. The Seminole will be taken to the plant of the Wilmington Iron Works either today or tomorrow, to begin her course of repairs. It will take some two weeks to complete the job.

College authorities to serve warrants on five A. & M. students, who are residents of Raleigh, charging them with assault upon George W. Tiencken, of Wilmington, freshman, in connection with having him Sunday night in one of the dormitories. Tiencken was tied down and beaten severely, it is alleged, with a dipper.

The police and President W. C. Riddick refuse to divulge the names of the alleged harsers until they are brought to trial.

Mr. Tiencken, who is referred to as having been harsed, is a son of Mr. M. G. Tiencken, of Wilmington, former councilman and member of the Board of Audit and Finance. He left this city ten days ago to enter the A. & M. College, at Raleigh. It was stated by members of the family last night in response to an inquiry from The Star that a letter was received from him yesterday, stating that he was getting along all right. It was also stated in the letter, which was written Wednesday, that "five boys liked to have drowned me last night." Whether these were the same boys for whom warrants have been asked was not known.

Members of the family felt sure last night that the warrants were not issued at the instance of Mr. Tiencken, but that the matter had been taken up by the college authorities on their own initiative. They did not believe that he had been seriously hurt and from the tone of the letter received here it was evident that the young man was taking the rather rough kind of harsing in good spirits.

Washington, N. C., Sept. 14.—A colored woman by the name of Matilda Leathers committed suicide in this city yesterday morning by jumping in Pamlico river, near the dock of the Coca-Cola bottling plant. It seems the woman was in bad health and had become despondent, and suddenly decided to end her troubles by the river route. The river was dragged and her body recovered a few hours later.

LOCAL ALUMNI OF A. & M. WILL MEET OCTOBER 7TH

Plans Being Made to Run Special Train to Raleigh Thanksgiving.

The annual meeting and banquet of the New Hanover Alumni Association of the A. & M. College will be held on the night of October 7th, according to an announcement made by the president, Mr. J. L. Becton. This date was chosen in the hope that all members would make arrangements to be in the city and attend the smoker. All annual meetings of the A. & M. Alumni associations will be held at near October 3rd as is practicable, this being the college anniversary day.

Officers will be elected at this meeting for the ensuing year, and it is expected that some representative from the college at Raleigh will be on hand to talk to the "boys" and give them the latest news of their alma mater. In addition to this, several of the local members will make talks, and a general good time is expected. Any alumni in the city who is not a member of this association, and who desires to join can do so by applying to either Mr. J. L. Becton or Mr. L. M. Merritt.

One of the most interesting features of this meeting will be the discussion of plans for running a special train to Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day, for the football game between A. & M. and Washington and Lee. For the first time in the history of North Carolina, the Tar Heels are going to have an opportunity of seeing a big Turkey Day gridiron scrimmage without traveling to some of the neighboring states. Through the efforts of the A. & M. athletic authorities and the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce this game was secured for Raleigh. As the pigskin warriors of each of these institutions are always a scrappy aggregation, no fears need be entertained that the "Generals" and "Aggies" will not put up a classy little scrimmage.

LOCAL DOTS

—Deaths were filed yesterday for the transfer of two lots at Wilmington Beach from the Wilmington Beach Corporation to J. J. Breen, of Charlotte.

—Policeman W. F. Craig, who was operated on at the James Walker Memorial Hospital a few days ago, is reported to be much improved, his many friends will be glad to learn.

—Mr. Charles Lindquist underwent an operation at the James Walker Memorial Hospital yesterday and was reported last night as getting along as well as could be expected, his friends will be glad to learn.

—In the custody of Sheriff S. P. Cowan and Deputy Sheriffs Reynolds and Keen, six prisoners convicted at the session of Superior Court that has just closed, were taken to the State penitentiary at Raleigh yesterday.

—An Oakland automobile, belonging to Mr. Louis Barlow and driven by Mr. Charles Darden, collided with a tree and was badly damaged Wednesday night. The accident occurred on the Carolina Beach road, between Sunset Park and Greenfield Park.

—Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, has returned from Clarkston, where Wednesday night, with Rev. J. D. Howell, pastor of the Baptist church of that town, he closed a very largely attended and successful revival meeting in the tobacco warehouse, the crowds being too large for the capacity of the Baptist church building.

TO CLEAR TODAY

Weather Forecasts Promise Farewell Showers.

The mercury crept just a little higher yesterday and registered at 85. In addition to this, old J. P. took several spiteful spits at the pedestrians, who were so careful as to venture forth without their raincoats and umbrellas. He is scheduled to leave us today, however, as the prediction for today says that it will be cooler with clearing showers, while Saturday it is predicted it will be perfectly fair.

While Wilmington was feeling the rather sultry effects of the heat yesterday, a high pressure area, accompanied by cooler weather, was causing freezing temperatures in Montana, Wyoming and parts of North Dakota.

SEPA GROTTO INITIATES.

Ceremonial Session Will be Held Tonight at Hour of Midnight.

During the dark and dismal hours of tonight beginning promptly at 1 o'clock, Sepa Grotto will conduct a class of candidates across the river Styx into the Enchanted Realm at a ceremonial session, called especially for the purpose of initiating a few who missed the fun at the last regular ceremonial meeting.

The meeting will be held at the Masonic Temple and all Master Masons who have been notified of their acceptability are invited to be on hand at that time when things will begin to happen thick and fast.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

—Mr. Hector Bland, a well known college and minor league baseball pitcher, was a Wilmington visitor yesterday.

—Among the arrivals at The Hotel Wilmington yesterday were: T. W. Colyer, Charlotte; W. E. DeRose, Charlotte; George D. Roesser, Rocky Mount.

—Among the arrivals at The Orton Hotel yesterday were: Walter M. Thompson, Jacksonville; W. B. Husella, Southport; F. R. Smith, Elizabethtown; L. F. Smith, Durham; C. Dewey, Goldsboro; John T. Hoff, Raleigh.

Eleven Rattles and a Button.

In the annual rattlesnake championship the contest for which has been on several weeks, Mr. Luther Register, of this city, yesterday qualified with one four and a half feet long, which he killed near the mess hall of the factory up the river where he is a superintendent. The mammoth reptile had eleven rattles and a button, indicating an age of 12 years. Mr. Register offered to bring the snake in and enter him for competition in the race, but as members of the Star staff, cognizant of the requirements of the prohibition laws, did not want to begin "lean's em' on," he did not do so, but the rattler was there all right and "with the bells on."

Wilmington Furniture Company Welcomes Friends in New Quarters.

The Wilmington Furniture Company was "at home" yesterday to its friends in the firm's new quarters, No. 208 North Front street, where the three spacious floors of the building are filled to overflowing with the latest and newest in the way of household goods and furnishings. The store remained open last evening in order to give all its friends an opportunity to inspect the large stock. The formal opening will continue through today and this evening and the public is extended a cordial welcome to call.

In the big stock on display are complete suites of bed room, dining room and parlor, quite in solid mahogany and in quarter sawed oaks, the well known "Karkens Bros." upholstered goods, library tables, ranges, mattresses and the well known makes of French, Austrian and German China dinner and tea sets. There is also a fine collection of the medium grade furniture.

The new shipment of rugs of the latest designs and patterns was received yesterday and placed on display.

SENATOR CLAPP CAMPAIGNING AGAINST CONGRESSMAN HOOD

Minnesota Senator in Third District to Help Major Butler.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clinton, N. C., Sept. 14.—Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, was a Clinton visitor last night and today. He is doing some speech making in the Third for Major George E. Butler, who wants to succeed Hon. George Hood in Congress, and during his stay here he was a guest in the Butler home. The Minnesota senator does not affect any statesmanlike manner, but he looks like one of the people.

Major Butler is confident that he will defeat Major Hood; he has said as much in all of the numerous speeches that he has made so far in his district. But the Democrats do not think it likely that enough people will humor Mr. Butler's ambition to accomplish the result he desires. There is no question but that the Butler forces are active, both in the use of political thunder and the long green. Congressman Hood has been busy in Congress; sticking by his ship until all legislation was safely passed, and he has not had the time to do much campaigning.

DEATH AT CLARKTON.

Mrs. D. F. Ward Passes Away After an Illness of Several Months.

Clarkton, N. C., Sept. 14.—Mrs. D. F. Ward quietly passed away at 9 o'clock Monday morning. She had been in ill health and had suffered for several months, and for several days her death had been hourly expected.

Mrs. Ward was born in December, 1860, and was reared in Robeson county. Before marriage she was Miss Florence E. Andrews, of sturdy Scotch ancestry. In 1894 she was married to Mr. D. F. Ward, of this place, where she has since resided. She united with the Methodist church in early girlhood and had lived a consistent life. Quiet, unassuming, a devoted wife, a loyal friend, her place in the community will be vacant.

She is survived by her husband, one sister, Mrs. J. W. White, Lumberton, and two brothers, Mr. H. L. Andrews, Lumberton, and Mr. J. I. Williams, Rowland.

The funeral was conducted at the Clarkton cemetery Tuesday morning by Rev. W. H. Goodman, assisted by Rev. J. D. Howell.

ENJOYED VISIT TO CAROLINA

Secretary Baker Writes Kingston Minister of Trip to State.

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 14.—Rev. John H. Griffith, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, is in receipt of a letter from his old school friend, Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, who signs himself, "affectionately, Scully." Mr. Baker states that the "whole day" spent by him in North Carolina recently "was a pleasure, as North Carolina would even her hospitable reputation to make me feel welcome, and the large audiences I had, both at Greensboro and at Winston-Salem, would have rewarded the labor of a longer journey by their courtesy and attention."

Most of the letter is of a personal nature. Mr. Griffith tells how the secretary won the nickname of "Scully." The cook at the school which they attended in Virginia was called "Scully." He weighed, according to Mr. Griffith, about 300 pounds and was short of stature. Mr. Baker when a boy also was short of stature and rather plump, and accordingly, since, nickname. He must have, "Little Scully," was bestowed upon him.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 14.—With Hon. Claude Kitchin, majority leader of the House, as the principal speaker, Nash county Democrats have about completed plans for one of the biggest rallies and barbecues to be held in this section of the State this year, to be held at Mount Pleasant school during the second week in October. The county committee has hit upon the idea of holding one big rally, barbecue dinner and speaking as the big part of the campaign rather than the regular canvass of the nominees and the holding of several minor speakings.

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautiful qualities of mercolized wax. Nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding complexion defects, it removes them. It actually takes off the aging, faded, sallowness, freckled or blotchy surface skin, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's own way of removing complexion. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or nervous prostration, mercolized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you never tried mercolized wax, get an ounce of it at the drug store, use it at night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning.

Another natural beautifying treatment—for wrinkled skin—is to bathe the face in a lotion of 20 drops of an ounce of powdered axolite in a half-pint witch hazel. This is remarkably and instantaneously effective.

SEPA GROTTA, NO. 79, M. O. V. P. E. H.

A short ceremonial will be held this (Friday) evening, at 12 o'clock, midnight, for the purpose of conducting NEOPHTES to the Grotto of the Enchanted Realm. Prophets wear your Pez. Show your card by the order of the Master.

A. S. HOLDEN, Secretary.

NEW MEMBER OF BOARD

Speculation as to Successor of J. O. Carr, Esq., on Board of Education.

Considerable interest is evident in Wilmington as to the probable successor of District Attorney J. O. Carr on the County Board of Education. The remaining members, Messrs. J. O. L. Gleschen and B. Solomon, have the authority to appoint a successor to Mr. Carr to serve until January, when the New Hanover Representative to the Legislature will name a man for the remainder of Mr. Carr's term.

While neither Mr. Gleschen nor Mr. Solomon would give any information concerning the list or names that are being considered for the place, it is understood that L. Clayton Grant, Esq., who is a member-elect of the next Legislature, has been called into consultation concerning the matter.

STOLE OVER $20,000 WORTH OF CLOTHING IN TEN YEARS

Salesman of New York Firm Alleged to Have Confessed.

New York, Sept. 14.—Charged with having stolen in ten years clothing valued at between $20,000 and $25,000 from a firm that employed him, George W. Stimm, a salesman, according to Assistant District Attorney Bohan, confessed today that he had sold the clothing at half the price and had lost most of the money in Wall Street speculation. Mr. Bohan said Stimm told him the clothing had been removed from the store in suit cases before other employees came to work in the morning.

STRIPPLING HUNTING JOB.

Georgia Man, Recently Pardoned, Calls on Richmond Police Chief.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 14.—Thomas Edgar Strippling, recently pardoned in Georgia, has come to Richmond from Hopewell to settle down, he says. He called today on Chief of Police Werner in search of a job. Strippling, under the name of R. E. Morris, was serving as the chief of police of Danville five years ago, when he was recognized as a man who had escaped years before from a Georgia convict farm. He was taken back to Georgia to serve out his unexpired term.

TO ENTER RACE FOR SENATOR.

Bainbridge Colby Will Run on the Progressive Ticket.

New York, Sept. 14.—Bainbridge Colby, who nominated Theodore Roosevelt for President at the Progressive National Convention in Chicago, but who since has declared himself in favor of re-election of President Wilson, issued a statement tonight "To the Progressives of the State of New York," announcing that he would enter the Progressive party primary for the nomination to the United States Senate.

DIS I. W. W. ARRESTED.

Hall Where They Were Meeting Raided by Sheriff, Deputies and Troopers.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 14.—A meeting of the Industrial Workers of the World in Old Forge today was raided by Sheriff Phillips, a dozen deputies and 30 state troopers and all those in the hall, 315, were arrested, loaded into vehicles of various kinds and taken to the Lackawanna county jail, charged with riot. The authorities had issued orders that the meeting was not to be held. The arrests were a sequel to alleged attempts by the I. W. W. men to tie up the Jermyn Company collieries.

NEWSBOY ARRESTED.

Held Under Bond on Charge of Selling Papers With Whiskey "Ads."

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Matthew Mindy, a newsboy, was held under $500 bond here today charged with selling New York, Jacksonville and Cincinnati newspapers containing liquor advertisements. It is the first case of its kind to be brought here under Georgia's new prohibition law.

BERLIN, Sept. 14, (via London, Sept. 15).—The Rumanian minister to Germany, Dr. Beldiman, will soon leave Berlin for Denmark, where he will take up his residence, it was announced today.

WILMINGTON IRON WORKS "THE IRON MEN"

THEATRICAL

"The Way of a Woman," the fifth chapter of Pathe's master plot, "The Grip of Evil," will be shown today at the Grand theatre. Jackie Saunders, "the Maude Adams of the screen and Roland Bottomley are the featured players.

"The Way of a Woman" is the chronicle of the further experiences of John Burton, millionaire, in his search for an answer to the question, is humanity in the grip of evil? Burton rescues a shop girl, who has cast herself from a bridge, after losing her job and her home. He aids her in many ways, and is rewarded by being blackmailed by her brother and seeing the girl sink to the drugs. The results of his philanthropy bring Burton no nearer the solution of his problem.

Replete with thrilling adventure and great events is this, the fifth great chapter of this stirring serial entitled "The Way of a Woman." "Does the Primrose Path Pay?" is the vital question asked and answered in this great chapter today at the Grand.

Another great treat for Grand patrons today is a rousing two-reel Selig drama starring that prince of popularity, Jack Pickford, the brother of the darling Mary Pickford.

Pavlova Again Today.
"Pavlova the Incomparable" created

It gives this actor a great opportunity in this powerful dual role, by means of some wonderful double exposure photography. Dual roles are always hard to play well, but this is a particularly hard one, because of the close contact required by the two characters. The step from a wealthy bachelor to a tough crook is a difficult one to take and in both parts Mr. Baggot is convincing. And the double exposure work is wonderful and from a new angle. The plot leaves nothing in the way of action or heart interest to be desired. From start to finish it holds the attention as it is carefully unravelled. It is all based upon a striking resemblance between a banker and a thief, a resemblance so close that the thief's "tough friend" is not able to detect the difference. You want to see this today.

Tomorrow at the Grand.
Nine of the greatest stars that the photoplay art has ever featured is tomorrow's great attraction at the Grand in the presentation of the Griffith-Sennett All-Star Biograph Programme, a novelty that you have never before had an opportunity of seeing and one that you will never see again. It is made up of three separate productions from among the greatest pictures ever pro-veritable sensation at the Royal yesterday, and according to indications even larger crowds may be expected today and tonight, judging from the favorable comment by everyone who has witnessed this magnificent film spectacle.

"Pavlova the Incomparable," in the film, is fully up to Pavlova on the stage, and some few who have had the extreme pleasure of seeing this internationally famous artist in flesh and blood were anxious to see her in the movies for the first time yesterday. Pavlova is a success in the films. That goes without saying. For never before has a motion picture of such artistic splendor and such magnificent greatness been seen in Wilmington. Eight mammoth reels are so packed with exciting, beautiful and magnificent action that one sits spellbound throughout the entire two hours that it is on the screen.

Tonight is termed "Society Night" by the management of this great show, and it is hoped to make of it a great success. "Society Night" for the eighth and ten o'clock performances, this evening should result in packed houses for the last opportunity of witnessing this great film spectacle. Jammed to the doors was the large theatre last night, and even larger crowds may be expected tonight, but the management will take pleasure in reserving sections for parties of four or more by telephoning.

"Judith of Bethulia" is the headliner, a four-act production starring Blanche Sweet, Mae Marsh, Henry Walthall, Lillian Gish, Claire McDowell, Robert Harron, and Charles Miles. One of the greatest pictures that David W. Griffith ever produced for Biograph.

"The Little Tease" is in two reels and stars Mae Marsh, Henry Walthall, and Henry Christie Miller in the leading roles. It is also a beautiful story of great human interest.

Then comes "The Diving Girl" the most famous one-reel comedy ever produced, starring that great favorite Mabel Normand, with Fred Mace. It is a Mack Bennett production and features Mabel Normand as a water sprite in which she does some marvelous feats.

Don't forget this great and costly aggregation of stars tomorrow at the Grand, booked especially for this date.

Biggest Bill Yet at Victoria.
Absolutely the biggest bill of the week goes on at the Victoria today. This is saying a whole lot in view of the big bill presented Monday and Tuesday, which surpassed any show of the kind ever seen in Wilmington at such low prices, but in presenting "Reconciliation" today and tomorrow Elsie Jonnson and her Musical Vaudeville Company guarantee that it will surpass anything they have yet presented.

Featured in this great musical-comedy production is the usual bunch of talented artists, with the inimitable

Jake still on the job, and funnier than ever. There is some of the very biggest musical hits of the season on today's bill. Witness, "My Own Iona," presented by that dainty and bewitching bit of femininity, Miss Louise Wright, about the sparkliest little comedienne who has ever appeared on the Victoria stage. A prediction is made that this will be one of the biggest hits of today's show.

Hutchinson (Grace) and Wiest (George) present another big hit in "Bits of Musical Comedy," in which "That Piano" figures again. Grace Hutchinson also presents "Quaker Town" in her inimitable way, and by special request will appear again in "The Broadway Blues" which made such a hit on the first bill of the week. Requests for this number have been coming in all the week. Another innovation is "The Old Teddy Bear Quartette," the sprightliest singing four that have yet been seen in some popular melodies. "Beautiful Dreams," by Miss Alice Sohn and Sextette is another great number, and the opening and finale is that popular song "Sweetheart Time" by the entire company. Just give it a look-in today. Satisfaction is guaranteed to everyone!

CAMP GLENN NOTES

Recruits Arriving Daily—Rigid Inspection This Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Camp Glenn, N. C., Sept. 14.—Recruits are arriving daily from recruiting parties sent out last week. It is reported, but not official, that they have all been ordered back to camp.

Colonel Donaldson, of the U. S. A. inspecting department, Washington, is here and the boys are expecting a rigid inspection this week. Some seem to think this will be the final inspection here.

Quite a few people visited the camp Sunday, as it was the last day of the cheap rates, and a good many of the boys had their friends to spend the day with them, and had plenty of good things to eat.

Captain Shaw, formerly captain of Company H, made quite a record on the rifle range this week, shooting at the 200-yard line, making ten straight bull's eyes in one minute.

"The Little Tease" is in two reels and stars Mae Marsh, Henry Walthall, and Henry Christie Miller in the leading roles. It is also a beautiful story of great human interest.

Dressing the Girl for SCHOOL

A Knockabout Coat and Hat of Good Style for the Schoolgirl--Blue Serge the Standard School Fabric--Reddish Brown Shades Fashionable--Braid and Button Trimmings.

ALL over this wide land, from Maine to California, now, mothers are turning their attention to school raiment, and sturdy yet attractive frocks, coats and hats for every-day wear are receiving special attention. Whether the young girl is being prepared for boarding school, or only for attendance at the day session of a school at home, she will require a supply of new wearables for which the first requisite will be neatness and the second serviceability. If she is to attend the grade school in her vicinity her wardrobe should be simple and not too expensive of expense.

Navy Serge Always Admirable. The standard material for school dresses in England, France and America is dark blue serge. Nothing wears better, keeps its freshness better and fits the picture of school day life more agreeably. A rather hard-twisted serge should be selected and the finer the quality the smarter will be the little frock. The style should be simple but smart and modern and there should be all the little touches that bring a frock up to date. One's heart aches for the little maid whose school dresses are cut, year after year, in a stereotyped pattern that appeals to parental opinion as being proper and sufficient for its purpose.

Such attractive little school frocks are ready in the shops that most mothers prefer nowadays to buy ready-made. Much smarter style can be obtained in this way, for the manufacturers of such frocks employ skillful designers and models are kept up-to-the-minute in cut and trimming. If the frocks are to be built in the home sewing room, it will pay to spend a day looking about the shops and noting the special features of the ready-made frocks. The manner of cutting the skirt, the length of the skirt, the location of the belt and the cut of the sleeves--this gives the modish silhouette. Special trimming features, should also be carefully observed; the location of buttons and pockets, the shape of collars, slashes, strappings, revers, and the like. But it is the silhouette that is most important. If the frock is made at home it may be made of better material than one is likely to obtain in a moderately priced ready-made model, and may have the added distinction of being stitched throughout with silk. French frocks for little girls show this daintiness of silk stitching even in details hidden from the eye; unfortunately the American manufacturer chooses to economize in this important detail of distinction and the cotton stitching in ready-made frocks detracts from their good looks and their durability. Two spoils of sewing silk--enough to stitch even a pleated frock, cost such a trifle compared with the daintiness of finish secured, that one deprecates the ugly cotton stitching so often quite visible to the eye in ready-made models.

Of Course, A Middy For School! Every young girl will want one natty middy frock at least to alternate with other costumes through the school semester. It should be of navy serge of course and should have, this season, a pleated skirt with pockets more or less exaggerated, set on at the hips. The waist will be confined by a trim belt and will go under the skirt--the middy that hangs over the skirt is for sport wear and is not suitable for school. The very essence of a middy effect is in the divided waist--the shoulder portion overlapping the lower portion in an irregular manner, stitched in smart tailored style. The sleeves may be set in or of the kimono type at the shoulder, with the overlapping, stitched low armhole on a line with the overlapping of the waist portion. A sailor collar and big, soft tie of black silk complete the correct middy ensemble. A frock of this sort, made of very dark, fine serge, with edges bound with black braid and every detail flawlessly tailored will be smart indeed; but the middy must be perfectly cut and tailored. If it is to possess distinction and style.

Mohair Frocks in Favor for Fall. Mohair is an excellent material for the autumn school frock--or even for an all-winter school frock for the matter of that. This material is very fashionable this season and many of the smartest French trotter frocks for women are of mohair or alpaca. Very attractive school frocks of navy mohair have pleated skirts, and tunic waists with very large arm holes, the edges of the tunic bound with braid or scalloped by hand with silk. Underneath this tunic goes a glimpse of white lawn or of plaid silk--if lawn is considered too thin for winter. The modern school is well heated and many mothers keep little girls in lawn gulleps throughout the winter; but it should be remembered that several times a day windows in the school room are likely to be thrown wide open in the interests of perfect ventilation, a condition not so apt to occur at home. Fire drills also send the children out into the street at intervals improperly protected against the cold though each child is supposed to catch up hat and wraps on the way out.

Combinations of serge, or mohair, with plaid taffeta make bright and serviceable school dresses and one model is pictured. The jacket frock is particularly attractive. The green and blue silk frock, in one piece, is sleeveless and rounded out at the neck, and may be worn on warm days with a white lawn gullep. The smart little jacket of navy serge makes quite another costume of it. This jacket is trimmed with narrow black braid and the pockets, belt and trimming around the neck on the silk frock match the jacket. The neat little collar is of hand scalloped picure. This little maid of twelve or thirteen years old wears her skirt in the correct length for her years. Her serviceable school shoes are of brown glazed kid and are matched by brown stock-ings.

Brown School Frocks in Vogue. All shades of brown, and particularly the reddish or tobacco browns are fashionable for children this season and for the brown-eyed little maid a brown school frock will be charming--particularly as so many other girls will wear blue. There is a picturesque daintiness about the brown costume pictured, a combination of pleated skirt and loose taffeta tunic with a graceful sash at the waist. The panel arrangement of the pleats is good and a facing of stiffening under the hem will keep the pleats crisply in place. The tunic buttons at the back and the armholes, V neck opening and scallops at the lower edge are finished with fine cording. The machine embroidered collar and cuffs add an extra note of daintiness for special occasions.

The School Coat Question. No less important than the problem of the school frock is that of the school coat. It must be sturdy, it must be good looking, it must not mind rough weather or rough usage, and it must be roomy enough to grow in for the girl will probably do some growing between autumn and distant spring. The formal coat, worn on high days and holidays needs far less care in selection than the humble school coat which will be worn every day but Sunday, the season round, and will be tossed on, dragged off, tumbled in heaps and otherwise inconsiderately treated. The pleated coat shown is of mixed worsted in neutral tan and green tones with a new yoke and sleeve, and plenty of flare at the edge. The wide belt fastens around at one side. The collar may be crossed snugly and buttoned close to the throat, or worn open. Such a coat will cost about eight dollars, made of good material. With it is worn an admirable felt school hat in the dashing continental shape, with pleated ribbon cockades.

A bit more distinguished in style is the dark green coat with collar and cuff trimming of skunk fur. The simple lines, loose belt and ripple flare of this model are especially good, combined with the distinction of excellent material and fur trimming. The gym suit is best made of blue serge for an overheated child cooling off in an airy gymnasium needs the protection of wool in her costume. The belted tunic pictured is smart and modern, and more comfortable for reaching exercises than a blouse gathered at the waistline.

Things You Can Fashion With Ribbons

IT is absolutely true that there is scarcely any limit to the things that can be made of ribbon. If you are delayed in getting out your Christmas gifts and have time neither for extensive shopping nor hours of needlework; ask every woman you know for a ribbon-gift suggestion, jot down all the suggestions and then spend an hour buying all sorts and shades of ribbon. After this you may set to work and two dozen pretty and acceptable gifts can be turned out in a few evenings.

A ribbon bag may be used for theatre and restaurant with an evening costume; or it will make a glorified dustcloth bag for somebody's dainty guest room. It is made of Dresden ribbon in blurred pinks and blues and plain pink satin ribbon of good width. There are two shaped side pieces of the Dresden ribbon, straight at top and bottom and rounded at the ends. These sections are not separate but are joined by a strip of the ribbon which passes under the bag and makes an oblong bottom section, the latter stiffened with an oblong of cardboard. The ends of the bag are made of pink satin ribbon, gathered to the Dresden ribbon. The shorter pieces of the satin ribbon, gathered to the straight upper edges of the Dresden sections, form the sides of the upper part of the bag. The six ends of pink satin ribbon, gathered into a frill, form petals which turn back over the drawstring of the bag. These strings are of Natter blue ribbon run through a casing. Be sure and face the sides with a resilient stiffening. Inside the facing, of course must go a lining of some sort and the pink satin ribbon, used for making the top of the bag will do for this lining also. Between the lining and facing, in the bottom of the bag, lay a section of cardboard so that the bottom of the bag may be kept perfectly flat. The side sections of flowered ribbon should be about four and a half inches wide at the lower, or straight edge, and the strip at the bottom will measure four and a half by two and a half inches. Thus the bag will be of dainty size and will just accommodate a small opera glass, a handkerchief and small vanity outfit.

The gay lady who presides over a telephone is dressed in a ribbon gown with spreading skirt and panniers in the lively Watteau fashion. Like the famous Queen of Spain who, according to a fastidious courtier of her time, "could have no legs," the telephone lady, below the waistline is composed only of petticoats. The upper part of her is a tiny bisque doll. Her voluminous skirt is made of several strips of wide sash ribbon in orchid and violet shades and hoops of featherbone tubing are run through casings under the flounces of ribbon to make the skirt stand out crisply at the hem and what would be the knee. The lady possesses neither extremities. The flounces are of violet satin ribbon; the gathered panniers also, and the latter have a trimming of very narrow gathered ribbon in the same shade. The little bodice is made of the flowered ribbon, attached to the shoulders of the doll with paste. A reticule of the ribbon, hung from one arm by drawstrings of baby ribbon completes the ensemble of this fetching dame. These telephone covers are very popular for dainty boudoirs and bed rooms furnished in Louis XVI style; they are not so appropriate for a library or living room.

A cushion covered with wide ribbon is in the flat, elongated shape now fashionable. Very wide sash ribbon in rich shades of rose, garnet and violet was used for the panels at top and bottom; wide pale gray satin ribbon for the gathered sides. The ribbons are joined by corded "pipings" made with inch-wide satin ribbon in deep rose color and two ribbon-made roses combining the colors. In the cushion, are fastened at one end. The bed-room slippers are dainty affairs, made of pale blue satin ribbon, within and without. A braided ribbon trimming is most effective as a finish at top and bottom--to cover the stitches. The upper part of the slippers are made of a straight strip of satin ribbon, mitted in a bias seam to form the sloping toe, and this strip should be reinforced with a strip of stiffening in exactly the same shape and size. Thus stiffened, the ribbon slipper is sewed to a ribbon-covered sole (these soles may be purchased for a trifle in any needlework shop where materials for worsted slippers are sold). The lining of the slipper and sole is sewed up separately and slipped into the slipper with seams on the under side. Lastly, the braided ribbon trimming is tacked on. Cushions for hatpins have for a foundation a tall, slender glass in which the pointed ends of the pins rest. The "rose" is made of gathered ribbon over a bit of cotton batting; the calyx of the rose is of ribbon also and the folded ribbon strips are lined with stiffening. After the calyx has been shirred into place and the shirrings covered with gathered narrow ribbons, the puffy rose which forms the top may be fitted into its ribbon cup and fastened securely.

Laced ribbon pin cushions are very pretty for the dresser. Two shades of ribbon, or contrasting colors are laced in basket-weave fashion as children weave paper strips at kindergarten.

This Watteau Dame in Her Ribbon Gown Presides Over The Telephone; The Bag Is Also Made Of Fancy Ribbons.

garden. This makes the top of a square cushion and the edge may be finished with a ribbon ruching. A corset case is made of two long strips of wide sash ribbon feather-stitched or buttonhole-stitched together at the edges; the rolled-up corset slipping into one end. Some of these corset cases, hand-embroidered, or hand-painted on the outer side, are very beautiful and make most acceptable gifts to women who like to keep their corsets thus daintily enveloped. A dancing-petticoat hoop made of ribbon and featherbone tubing will be a dainty gift for a young woman. The two featherbone hoops, run through ribbon casings, hang on strips of narrow white ribbon which depend from a ribbon belt. There should be six of these ribbon strips, the three in front a bit shorter than the three in back. One hoop should be set to come just below the hip, the second hoop about at the knees.

COTTON GOES STILL HIGHER

General List Makes Net Gain of 13 to 16 Points, With the Quotation on Middling at 15.65.

New York, Sept. 14.—A sharp advance was followed by reactions in the cotton market this afternoon with January selling off from 15.85 to 15.70 and closing at 15.75. The general list closed steady at a net advance of 13 to 16 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 13 to 15 points in response to higher Liverpool cables, bullish overnight spot advances from the South and unexpectedly heavy domestic consumption figures from the census bureau.

Offerings were heavy at the advance, but were very well absorbed by a broadening demand until late in the morning. December contracts sold at 15.75 and March at 16.05, or about 26 points above last night's closing figures and approximately 14 a bale above the low level of last Monday morning. Realizing then became more active and the market was rather nervous and unsettled during the afternoon with prices selling off some 10 to 15 points from the best. The close was a few points up from the lowest on covering.

Some local traders had anticipated that census returns for August would indicate rather a moderate consumption. The figures actually reported, however, indicated a combined consumption of 626,579 bales of lint and linters, and broke all previous records, and was a factor in the early advance.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Market Steady at Net Advance Throughout Yesterday's Session.
New Orleans, Sept. 14.—While cotton remained at a net advance throughout the session today, there were periods when the tone was barely steady and almost easy, chiefly under the pressure from liquidating longs. Selling was heaviest late in the session on the rumor that Sweden had joined the Central Powers. This increased greatly offerings from the long side, stimulated the heaviest short offerings of the session and brought about a reaction of 15 to 18 points from the highest level of the day. It also completely offset a rise of 25 points in local spot quotations.

The market opened at the rise on the bullish showing made by the census bureau statistics on August consumption in this country, of 626,579, linters and cotton together. In the early trading prices advanced 20 to 23 points. With many accessions the advance was gradually widened until, in the early afternoon the active months were 25 to 30 points over yesterday's last quotations. Then followed the reaction and the market did not gain any fresh strength up to the close which was at a net rise for the day of 13 to 15 points.

Closing bid: October 15.15; December 15.39; January 15.53; March 15.75; May 15.79.
Spot steady, 25 points up; sales on the spot 1,530 bales; to arrive 726 bales; middling 15.75.

WEAKNESS SEIZES WHEAT

Early Display of Strength Gives Way to the Down Turn in Some Cases Amounting to 7c Per Bushel.

Chicago, September 14.—Sudden weakness seized the wheat market late today after an early display of strength. The down turn, which in some cases amounted to 7 cents a bushel, as compared with top prices of the day, was accompanied by the assertions that Argentine wheat was being offered cheaper in the United States than domestic wheat, and by unconfirmed rumors that Sweden had decided to go to war, presumably against Great Britain. Something of a recovery ensued, but prices closed weak, 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 net lower, with December at 1.48 1/2, and May at 1.49 to 1.49 1/2. Corn lost 1/4 to 1/2, and oats 1/4 to 1/2. In provisions, the outcome ranged from 5 cents decline to a rise of 32.

SPLENDID REVIVAL CLOSED

Rev. J. A. Sullivan Makes Deep Impression and Ends His Mission at Clarkton.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Sept. 14.—The meeting which has been conducted in the tobacco warehouse here for the last few days closed last night. Rev. J. D. Howell, pastor of the Baptist church, is being congratulated on having secured the services of Rev. J. A. Sullivan, of Wilmington, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, who has so faithfully and so earnestly preached during the series of meetings. The services were well attended, though the inclement weather of the last two days caused a decrease in the size of the audience. There have been a number of conversions and probably others will follow as a result of the faithful effort put forth. Mr. Sullivan left last night for his home in Wilmington. His coming has proved a blessing to the community and he carries with him the love and good will of all those who were so fortunate as to come in contact with him and hear him preach here.

The audience which gathered last night, realizing that it was the last service of the series, was feeling rather sad. "The Fatal Line," was Mr. Sullivan's subject for this last service. At times the stillness was almost painful, so intent was every one of the words that fell from the preacher's lips. That he was deeply moved was evident.

"I stand," he said, "on the shore of the sea of life and watch humanity as they pass by. I realize that on the sea of life there is a line that when once crossed, the spirit turns away. My spirit will not always strive with men." Then he went on to show why God's spirit strives with men—because He knows the importance of striving; He knows the value of a human soul; God's spirit strives by contemplation, by care and sorrow, preaching of the gospel, sickness, bereavement.

Then in the most solemn manner, the speaker spoke of how God's spirit will cease to strive. "Oh," he exclaimed, "are there any marked souls in here tonight? It may be you have crossed the line. Think of the contest between you and God's spirit. One day you'll win the victory. One day He'll leave you, but it will be your condemnation. Have you crossed the fatal line? Sometimes just one act, one step, then the spirit goes away. Young man, you have stepped over the body of Christ. Almost, it seems to me, on bended knee, the Father is begging you to come. There'll come a time when you'll want him, but He'll reject you. Dare you take the risk? I can't help you. I don't know where the line is. If you are not moved tonight, you must have crossed the line. Where will you spend eternity? God knows I wish you to accept Him tonight."

Among the best services held were those on Sunday. The theme for the morning service was "Twilight Raptures." In the afternoon was held a service for young people, which was very impressive. The crowd on Sunday evening was a record breaker. The congregation of the Presbyterian church united with the Baptists. There was also a large number of colored people present. Mr. DeVaun, who had charge of the singing, called on for several selections. The theme for Sunday evening was "The Surprises and Disappointments of the Judgment," and was handled in a truly masterly manner, which resulted in a number of conversions.

There was no service in the day time on Monday. A touching feature at the evening service was a solo by Mr. DeVaun, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" As he softly sang the last line of the last stanza the choir joined with him in singing the chorus, "Back to My Father and Home." The sermon following immediately afterward was from the parable of the Prodigal Son, "The Prodigal's Resolution."

The services in the afternoon have been very impressive. Mr. Sullivan has talked especially to Christians on "Personal Work."

"Remember Lot's Wife," was the text Tuesday evening. Seldom has a Clarkton audience heard a more earnest sermon, conveying in all its awfulness the doom of a lost soul.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Son of Dr. J. W. Powell and Young Lady in Dangerous Auto Accident.

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 14.—Miss Anna Prigden, a well known young woman of this city, and James Powell, small son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell, had narrow escapes when a big automobile which Miss Prigden was driving left a bridge and went into a stream on the Central Highway a mile and a half west of here. There was four and one-half feet of water in the stream, and both occupants might have been drowned had the car turned over. The machine landed in such a position that the occupants were not thrown out. The little boy was slightly cut and bruised on the head, while Miss Prigden escaped with no more serious injury than a severe shock. She was a novice at driving, and was proceeding cautiously over the bridge, it is said. The car lodged in such a position that difficulty was experienced in getting it out.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR NEW COTTON MILL IN N. CAROLINA

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 14.—Industrial activity throughout the South resulted in many interesting announcements during the past week, details being presented in today's Manufacturers' Record. These details include the plans of capitalists for establishing various classes of manufacturing plants, for manufacturing lumber, etc.

In North Carolina a cotton company awarded contracts for an additional mill for which it recently increased its capital to the extent of $600,000; in Maryland a corporation was reported to invest $500,000 for buildings and machinery to add 5,000 tons to the monthly capacity of its copper smelting and rolling plant; in North Carolina a $100,000 corporation was chartered to knit hosiery; in Oklahoma a $50,000 company was incorporated to manufacture iron drums and other vessels, etc.

From the Manufacturers' Record are taken the following brief summaries of some of the principal industrial items of the week:

Mooreville Cotton Mills, Mooreville, N. C., which recently increased capital by $600,000, awarded contract for 410x127-foot spinning mill and 420x137-foot weave mill, in which to install 10,000 spindles, with accompanying looms, twist, etc., for manufacturing cotton cloth.

Fisheries Products Co., Wilmington, N. C., incorporated with $125,000 capital to manufacture fish products.

Shelby, N. C., incorporated with $100,000 capital to manufacture knit hosiery.

Monroe Mill & Gin Co., Monroe, N. C., incorporated with $25,000 capital to operate cotton gin and grist mill.

Estill Manufacturing Co., Estill, S. C., incorporated with $25,000 capital to manufacture and bottle beverages.

FLORA McDONALD COLLEGE OPENS WITH 250 REGISTERED

Institution at Red Springs Has Best Prospects in Its History.

Red Springs, N. C., Sept. 14.—With the beginning of her twenty-first year, Flora MacDonald College is having the finest opening of her history. With every available space not only signed for but occupied, the college opened yesterday with 250 pupils registered and her 35 officers and teachers ready for work. There are present a larger percentage than usual of old girls and the greatest number of new students we have ever had.

Applications were so far in excess of the capacity of the buildings that it became necessary early in the summer to rent two houses adjoining the campus for the accommodation of students who refused to be turned away, and still admission had to be denied nearly fifty others for lack of room.

The registration is also more widely distributed by states than usual. In addition to the North Carolina girls, there are fifty from South Carolina, and other states represented include Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, New York, New Jersey, West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Kansas, Michigan and Brazil.

Some repairs and renovations have been going on in the buildings during the summer. The classes in physics will meet this year in new quarters and the domestic science kitchen has been enlarged. With everybody comfortable and busy and happy, the year is bright with promise. E. McG.

SAYS NO EIGHT-HOUR DAY FOR THE WORLD'S LEADERS

President Henry Louis Smith Speaks at W. & L. Opening.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Lexington, Va., Sept. 14.—That there is no eight-hour day for the world's leaders and that success can be attained only by determined effort and even more notorious drudgery, was one of the statements made by President Henry Louis Smith in his address of welcome this morning to the students of Washington and Lee University, Lee Memorial Chapel, where the first assembly was held, was filled with students and many townspeople were in the gallery. Although matriculation is not yet completed, indications are that the expected enrollment of 520 men will be increased by late arrivals. The Y. M. C. A. will hold a reception in honor of the new students tomorrow night at the Carnegie library.

Dr. Smith welcomed the new and the old students "to the privileges of college life, its complex activities, its warm friendships, its means of intellectual development."

"College life," he said, "is opportunity, fruitful, intensified, full to the brim, and coming generally to each man but once in a life-time. How to make the most of it is the subject of my opening address before this great body of eager young Americans. A college education is almost the only open gate to prominence and achievement in the twentieth century."
